ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

REPRESENTATIVE ANDY JOSEPHSON

Sponsor Statement

House Bill 319: “An act relating to criminal background checks for marijuana establishment registrations and renewals; and providing for an effective date.”

Under current statute, for marijuana establishments to renew their registration, they must resubmit fingerprints for the purposes of conducting a background check on an annual basis. Fingerprinting and thoroughly vetting registrations for the industry of a controlled substance is vital for our public safety. However, this process becomes adverse to public interests when it is done in excess, placing an unnecessary burden on Alaskan business owners and entrepreneurs.

Turning in fingerprints annually is not standard protocol for regulated industries, and it does not improve public safety. Only one other industry requires that fingerprints be turned in again after the initial printing; massage therapists must turn in fingerprints every two years. Fingerprints don't change, and the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development has technology in place that monitors licensees and alerts the department of any changes in their criminal record.

In changing the requirement from every year to every three years, we retain the additional stop-gap protection in turning in new fingerprints, while relieving pressure on a new and developing industry in our state. The department and the industry both support this simple legislative solution.

I urge you to support this legislation. If you have any questions, please call my staff Megan Holland at 465-4939.

FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2018 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB319

Analysis

HB319 reduces the requirement that applicants for renewal of a marijuana establishment license must submit fingerprint cards and fees for a national criminal history record check from annually to every three years.

The Alcohol and Marijuana Control Office (AMCO) collects fingerprint fees from applicants, and forwards them to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) to perform the criminal history record check. AMCO enters into an annual reimbursable service agreement (RSA) with DPS to transfer the collected fingerprint fees. Licenses renew annually on June 30. During the 2017 renewal cycle, AMCO forwarded $7.6 to DPS for background checks of renewal applications.

There is not an anticipated cost to the department associated with this legislation. If HB319 is enacted, renewals of marijuana licenses will not require the yearly processing of a fingerprint based background check for applicants. Multiple aspects of the commercial marijuana industry in Alaska are still unknown, and the variability of revenues collected for fingerprint fees are not expected to be significant.

At this time, the DPS fee for a fingerprint-based criminal background check is $47.00 per person. Background checks are required for each individual listed on a marijuana establishment license.

FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2018 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 319

Analysis

This bill amends AS 17.38.200(a) dealing with marijuana establishment registrations to require persons renewing a marijuana establishment registration to submit their fingerprints to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) for a national criminal history record check every three years.

The fee collected by the DPS Division of Statewide Services' Criminal Records & Identification Bureau for fingerprint-based background checks is $35.00 plus a $12.00 fee charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), $2.00 of which is retained by DPS for processing costs.

Although this will increase the number of background checks DPS will conduct, the effects on the work load will be minimal and would result in only a nominal increase in program receipts for the Division of Statewide Services' Criminal Records & Identification Bureau. Therefore, a zero fiscal note is being submitted.

Statement of Support for HB319

The AMIA is pleased to state its support for HB319, it is merely common sense that the yearly re-checking of fingerprints is a burden on the already strained resources of the Department of Public Safety, the already stretched resources of the applicants of the process and a drain on everyone's time. The language changes to ease this requirement into a reasonable time frame is a welcome addition to an important requirement to ensure the safety of the public. The Alaska Marijuana Industry Association is fully supportive of the introduction of this language by Representative Josephson and hope this is adopted.

Respectfully Submitted on behalf of the AMIA Board,

Carroll Carrigan

Executive Director

● DIRECTOR BRIEFING

A. Director's Report

Director McConnell: AMCO lost two administrative staff to other positions in state service. Program coordinator still out on leave. Two licensing staff are new. Purchase of new audio equipment for better recording. Renewal application clarification: board wants to see licensees with NOVs in the previous year, not over the entire license history. If renewal is not filed in a timely manner, licenses expire on August 31. But it is not clear when licenses expire if renewal is filed in a timely manner. Propose to the board, show expiration date is August 31. Board directed advisory on multiple buildings as licensed premises.

Conflict of regulations. Board must approve changes to licensed premises in one section, and the director in another. Propose board delegate authority in 3 AAC 306.015(c). If comfortable with delegation on NOVs and temporarily approved changes to operating plans, chair can sign delegated order.

Emmett: These delegated orders are acceptable. No objection.

Chair Mlynarik: Statutory requirement for fingerprints?

McConnell: Cards are submitted to DPS, not kept on file at AMCO. AMCO cannot simply send a name to DPS for a background check.

Milks: On renewal application, licensee is required to disclose whether there has been a change in criminal history. It is in the statute that all renewals require a background check.

Emmett: some business owners are perplexed by having to submit background check every year, when alcohol only requires every five.

Jones: We need to have some legislative change on this requirement. It is an added expense.

Springer: An annual background check, especially since saying under penalty of perjury, that this is too high a bar.

Mlynarik: Investigator should have the ability to run a local check through APSIN. Investigators should be doing that on these renewals. Three years is reasonable.

Springer moves MCB request legislature amend AS17.38.200(a) to change the requirement for background checks. Emmett seconds. Motion carries 5-0.

McConnell: Board can retain authority on licensed premises changes, or delegate to director.

Jones: If they are going to have multiple buildings, space between them needs to be restricted space.

McConnell: when the board delegates authority to me, doesn't mean I have to make a decision. When I see a conflict, I will bring to board.

Springer moves to delegate authority of 3 AAC 306.015(c) to approve licensed premises changes to director. Emmett seconds.

Motion carries 5-0.

McConnell: One licensed premises, but separate restricted access areas. Need guidance from the board. Under what circumstances would a licensee need areas accessible to the public?

Springer: We issued licenses to cultivators who are using their residences. One of the questions I ask is 'do you have any kids.' We instruct them when they are going to move their product to create a temporary restricted access area.
