DATE : May 7, 1975

FROM: Langhorne A. Motley
Commissioner
Department of Commerce

SUBJECT:
HB 37

1. Pursuant to our telecom this date, we concur with your analysis of the most appropriate agency to determine the validity of "lenders" for the purpose of doing business with AHFC.
2. Therefore, on line 13, we would suggest substituting "Director of Banking, Securities & Corporations" for "Federal Housing Authority."
3. Native Regional Corporations have not asked to be considered as lenders, but they can be approved under this bill if they have a satisfactory financial statement, have the capacity to assess loan applications, and have made arrangements for loan supervision.

III. ANALYSIS (See Fiscal Note Preparation Instructions, Section III)

Work would be absorbed by existing staff.

If bill is made affective July 1, 1975 conversion of existing stock of suspended permits would be necessary to make possible meeting the early requirement.

Revenue is estimated at $200,000 for each full year of program operation. Emphasis on tourist attractions, gas costs or shortages, and other factors can affect the forecast. Split of revenue should be approximately 70 % resident/30% non-resident visitor.

6 For an Act entitled: "An Act creating the office of the ombudsman; amending
7 Rule 43(h) of the Rules of Civil Procedure; and pro-
8 viding for an effective date."

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

10 * Section 1. AS 24 is amended by adding a new chapter to read:

11 CHAPTER 55. OFFICE OF THE OMBUDSMAN.

12 ARTICLE 1. ORGANIZATION.

13 Sec. 24.55.010. OFFICE OF THE OMBUDSMAN. There is created in the 14 legislative branch of the state the office of the ombudsman.

15 Sec. 24.55.020. APPOINTMENT OF THE OMBUDSMAN. (a) A candidate for 16 appointment as the ombudsman shall be nominated by the Alaska Legislative 17 Council.

18 (b) The legislative council shall examine persons to serve as the 19 ombudsman regarding their qualifications and abilities and shall place 20 the name of the person selected in nomination before the legislature for 21 appointment as the ombudsman. The appointment of a person nominated as 22 the ombudsman by the legislative council

23 (1) shall be considered in hearings before the appropriate
24 standing committees of each house; and

25 (2) is effective if his candidacy is approved by a roll call
26 vote of three-fourths of the members in each house of the legislature
27 entered in the journal.

28 Sec. 24.55.030. QUALIFICATIONS; PROHIBITION AGAINST POLITICAL
29 ACTIVITY. (a) No person may serve as ombudsman

1 (1) within one year of the last day on which he served as a
2 member of the legislature;

3 (2) while he is a candidate for or holds any other national,
4 state, or municipal office; nor may the ombudsman become a candidate for 5 national, state or municipal office until one year has elapsed from the 6 date he vacates the office of ombudsman;

7 (3) while he is engaged in any other occupation for which he
8 receives compensation.

9 (b) It is essential that the nonpartisan nature, integrity and 10 impartiality of the ombudsman's functions and services be maintained. The 11 ombudsman and members of his staff may not join, support or otherwise
12 participate in a partisan political organization, faction or activity,
13 including but not limited to the making of political contributions.
14 However, this subsection does not restrict the ombudsman or members of 1 his staff from expressing private opinion, registering as to party, or 16 voting.

17 Sec. 24.55.040. TERM OF OFFICE. (a) The term of office of the 18 ombudsman is five years. An ombudsman may be reappointed.

19 (b) If the term of an ombudsman expires without the appointment of 20 a successor under this chapter, the incumbent ombudsman may continue in 21 office until a successor is appointed. If the ombudsman dies, resigns, 22 becomes ineligible to serve, or is removed or suspended from office, the 23 deputy ombudsman becomes acting ombudsman until a new ombudsman is ap-
24 pointed for a full term.

25 Sec. 24.55.050. REMOVAL. The legislature, by a concurrent resolu-
26 tion adopted by a roll call vote of two-thirds of the members in each 27 house entered in the journal, may remove or suspend the ombudsman from 28 office, but only for neglect of duty, misconduct, or disability.

29 Sec. 24.55.060. COMPENSATION. The ombudsman is entitled to receive

1 an annual salary equal to that of a superior court judge.

2 Sec. 24.55.070. STAFF AND DELEGATION. (a) The ombudsman may
3 appoint a deputy ombudsman; he shall also appoint assistants and clerical
4 personnel necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

5 (b) The ombudsman may delegate to his deputy or assistants any of 6 his duties except those specified in secs. 190 - 200 of this chapter;
7 however, during the ombudsman's absence from his principal business
8 offices, the ombudsman may delegate the duties specified in secs. 190 - 9 200 of this chapter to his deputy for the duration of his absence.
10 Those duties specified in secs. 190 - 200 of this chapter shall be
11 performed by the deputy ombudsman when he is serving as acting ombudsman
12 under sec. 40(b) of this chapter.

13 (c) The ombudsman and the staff appointed by him are in the exempt
14 service under AS 39.25.110.

15 Sec. 24.55.080. OFFICE FACILITIES AND ADMINISTRATION. (a) The 16 Alaska Legislative Council shall provide suitable office space and 17 equipment for the ombudsman and his staff.

18 (b) The salary and benefits of the ombudsman and his permanent 19 staff shall be paid through the same procedures used for payment of the 20 salaries and benefits of other permanent legislative employees.

21 (c) The ombudsman shall submit a budget for each fiscal year to 22 the finance committees of the legislature and shall annually submit an 23 estimated budget to the governor for information purposes in the prepara-
24 tion of the executive budget.

25 Sec. 24.55.090. PROCEDURE. The ombudsman shall, by regulations
26 adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act (AS 44.62), establish 27 procedures for receiving and processing complaints, conducting investi-
28 gations, and reporting his findings. However, he may not charge fees
29 for the submission or investigation of complaints.

1 ARTICLE 2. JURISDICTION AND INITIATION OF INVESTIGATIONS.

2 Sec. 24.55.100. JURISDICTION. (a) The ombudsman has jurisdiction
3 to investigate the administrative acts of agencies.

4 (b) The ombudsman may exercise his powers without regard to the 5 finality of an administrative act.

6 Sec. 24.55.110. INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS. The ombudsman shall
7 investigate any complaint which is an appropriate subject for investiga-
8 tion under sec. 150 of this chapter, unless he reasonably believes that

9 (1) there is presently available an adequate remedy for the 10 grievance stated in the complaint;

11 (2) the complaint relates to a matter that is outside the 12 jurisdiction of the ombudsman;

13 (3) the complaint relates to an administrative act of which
14 the complainant has had knowledge for an unreasonable length of time
15 before the complaint was submitted;

16 (4) the complainant does not have a sufficient personal
17 interest in the subject matter of the complaint;

18 (5) the complaint is made in bad faith;

19 (6) the resources of the ombudsman's office are insufficient
20 for adequate investigation.

21 Sec. 24.55.120. INVESTIGATION ON THE OMBUDSMAN'S MOTION. The 22 ombudsman may investigate the administrative act of an agency on his own
23 motion if he reasonably believes that it is an appropriate subject for 24 investigation under sec. 150 of this chapter.

25 Sec. 24.55.130. NOTICE TO COMPLAINANT. (a) If the ombudsman
26 decides not to investigate a complaint, he shall inform the complainant
27 of that decision and shall state his reasons.

28 (b) If the ombudsman decides to investigate a complaint, he shall 29 notify the complainant of his decision.

The Honorable Mike Bradner
Speaker of the House
Alaska State Legislature
Juneau, Alaska 99811

Dear Mr. Speaker:

Pursuant to the Uniform Rules of the Legislature, I am transmitting a bill which creates the office of the ombudsman, and which amends Rule 43(h) of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

This bill provides for the creation of the office of the ombudsman in the legislative branch of the government. The ombudsman is a legislative officer who is nominated by the legislative council and appointed by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session for a term of six years. The ombudsman may be removed by the legislature by a two-thirds vote in each house, but only for neglect of duty, misconduct or disability. The ombudsman shall appoint a deputy ombudsman and assistants and clerical personnel necessary to assist him in his operations.

He is required to establish, by regulations, procedures for receiving and processing complaints, conducting investigations, and reporting his findings. The jurisdiction of the ombudsman extends to the administrative acts of state agencies, which include any agency in the executive branch of the government and those agencies which are independent of the executive, legislative and judicial branches. It also includes an officer, employee or member of an agency acting in his official capacity, but does not include the governor, lieutenant governor, their personal staff, or members or employees of the legislative and judicial branches.

The ombudsman will be required to investigate any complaint which is made to his office and which is an appropriate subject for investigation under the provisions of this bill. He also may investigate the administrative acts of agencies on his own motion if they are appropriate subjects for investigation under the provisions of this bill. An appropriate subject for investigation is an administrative act of an agency which the ombudsman has reason to believe might be (1) contrary to law; (2) unreasonable, unfair, oppressive, arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or unnecessarily discriminatory even though in accordance with law; (3) based on a mistake of fact; (4) based on improper or irrelevant grounds; (5) unaccompanied by an adequate statement of reasons; (6) performed in an inefficient manner; or (7) otherwise erroneous.

The ombudsman may investigate to find an appropriate remedy for whatever abuse he might find. The ombudsman has subpoena power for testimony, for documents, papers or objects which relate to matters under investigation.

The ombudsman is required to report his opinion and recommendations resulting from an investigation to the appropriate agency, if he finds (1) that a matter should be further considered by the agency; (2) the administrative act should be modified or cancelled; (3) a statute or regulation on which an administrative act is based should be altered; (4) reasons should be given for an administrative act; (5) any other action should be taken by the agency; (6) there are no grounds for any action by the agency; or (7) the agency's act was arbitrary, capricious, constituted an abuse of discretion or was otherwise erroneous, or not in accordance with law.

Within a reasonable amount of time after the ombudsman reports his opinion and recommendations to an agency, he may present his opinion and recommendations to the governor, the legislature, the public or any of these. This provision contains the real crux of the ombudsman's power, in that abuses by the government of individuals are brought under public scrutiny so that proper action may be taken either by the executive, by the legislature, or through the election process.

The provision of the bill which amends the court rule of civil procedure and consequently requires a two-thirds vote of the members of each house, is that which gives the ombudsman and his staff a privilege not to testify in court regarding matters coming to their attention in the exercise or purported exercise of their official duties.

RECEIVED BY THE OMBUDSMAN AND HIS STAFF

Sincerely,

Jay S. Hammond
Governor

§96-2 Ombudsman; office established, appointment, tenure, removal, qualifications, compensation, vacancy. The office of ombudsman is established. The legislature, by a majority vote of each house in joint session, shall appoint an ombudsman who shall serve for a period of six years. An ombudsman may be reappointed but may not serve for more than three terms. The legislature, by two-thirds vote of the members in joint session, may remove or suspend the ombudsman from office, but only for neglect of duty, misconduct, or disability.

No person may serve as ombudsman within two years of the last day on which he served as a member of the legislature, or while he is a candidate for or holds any other state office, or while he is engaged in any other occupation for reward or profit.

The compensation of the ombudsman shall be $12,000 a year. The compensation of the ombudsman shall not be diminished during his term of office, unless by general law applying to all salaried officers of the State.

If the ombudsman dies, resigns, becomes ineligible to serve, or is removed or suspended from office, the first assistant to the ombudsman becomes the acting ombudsman until a new ombudsman is appointed for a full term. [L. 1967, c. 306, §3]

§96-7 Notice to complainant and agency. If the ombudsman decides not to investigate, he shall inform the complainant of that decision and shall state his reasons.

§96-10 Powers. Subject to the privileges which witnesses have in the courts of this State, the ombudsman may:

STATUTORY
TEXT:

Section 11. Action on complaints. (a) The Ombudsman may receive a complaint from any source concerning an administrative act. He shall conduct a suitable investigation into the things complained of unless he believes that

1. the complainant has available to him another remedy or channel of complaint which he could reasonably be expected to use;
2. the grievance pertains to a matter outside the Ombudsman's power;
3. the complainant's interest is insufficiently related to the subject matter;
4. the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious, or not made in good faith;
5. other complaints are more worthy of attention;
6. the Ombudsman's resources are insufficient for adequate investigation; or
7. the complaint has been too long delayed to justify present examination of its merit.

The Ombudsman's declining to investigate a complaint shall not, however, bar him from proceeding on his own motion to inquire into the matter complained about or into related problems;

COMMENT:

COMMENT. The duty to act on every complaint should not be imposed, partly because the dimensions of the work burden cannot be exactly predicted and partly because some complaints will show on their face that they are unlikely to lead to productive findings. The above listing leaves the Ombudsman free to reject complaints, but does not bar his making inquiries. Specifically, he need not reject a complaint because another judicial or administrative remedy exists. Normally, one may suppose the Ombudsman will insist that matters proceed through regular channels. Explaining to a complainant the steps he can take to obtain review will usually suffice. But assuredly some cases will arise in which the burden of expense and time are realistic barriers to a complainant's pursuing the theoretically available remedies. In those instances access to the Ombudsman should not be precluded. Subsection (1) leaves the avenue open, but the traffic is still subject to control.

Another policy choice is reflected in Subsection (a) which does not require that every complaint be based on a claimed invasion of a strictly personal interest. This permits a complainant to bring to the Ombudsman's notice a matter of public rather than purely private concern. But if the complainant's concern with the subject matter is too attenuated, the Ombudsman may choose not to investigate.

Subsection (7) does not contain an explicit "statute of limitations" on complaints, though the Ombudsman is left free to reject those based on stale claims or ancient grudges. In Sweden complaints must be acted on if filed within ten years of the events in question; Denmark, New Zealand, and Norway, by contrast, require rejection of any complaint pertaining to occurrences beyond the preceding twelve months. Neither extreme seems desirable. The present draft lays down no rule in this respect, but allows the Ombudsman to pick his way at the outset. Later, in the light of experience, he may wish to promulgate some rules of his own, as is allowed by Section 9 (b), above.

STATUTORY TEXT:

SECTION 302. Investigation of complaints.

The Ombudsman shall investigate any complaint indicating an appropriate subject for investigation under section 301, unless he believes that

(a) there is presently available an adequate remedy for the grievance stated in the complaint;

(b) the complaint relates to a matter that is outside the jurisdiction of the Ombudsman;

(c) the complaint relates to an administrative act of which the complainant has had knowledge for too long a time before the complaint was submitted;

(d) the complainant does not have a sufficient personal interest in the subject matter of the complaint;

(e) the complaint is trivial or made in bad faith;

(f) the facilities of the Ombudsman's office are insufficient for adequate investigation; or

(g) there are other complaints more worthy of the Ombudsman's attention.

COMMENT:

SECTION 302. Investigation of complaints.

In general, the Ombudsman has the duty to investigate any complaint which discloses the existence of an appropriate subject for investigation under section 301. He may decline to investigate only for certain reasons, stipulated in section 302. However, these reasons are broadly stated and leave much to the Ombudsman's discretion. He may consider the degree of the complainant's interest in the problem disclosed, the seriousness of the grievance, whether the resources of his office permit an adequate investigation, and whether there are other complaints more worthy of his attention. He may also decline to investigate if another remedy is available to the complainant. Since the number of complaints an Ombudsman in an American state would receive is an unknown quantity, such provisions are necessary to enable him to make the most effective use of his powers. They in no way preclude the Ombudsman from investigating any agency under his jurisdiction. Often the Ombudsman will prefer to investigate in a case where the statute permits him to refuse. For instance, if he believes that recourse to a legal remedy would be futile or overly burdensome to his client, he might wish to render assistance. He might also want to proceed on a complaint from a public-spirited citizen who discloses administrative inefficiency even though the complainant is not personally injured. These examples are not exhaustive. However, in the vast majority of cases, the Ombudsman can be expected to rely on the standards implicit in section 302.

CODE OF IOWA, §601G.12 re authority of the Citizens' Aide (Ombudsman) to refuse to investigate a complaint

601G.12 Complaints investigated. The citizens' aide may receive a complaint from any source concerning an administrative action. He shall conduct a suitable investigation into the administrative actions complained of unless he finds substantiating facts that:

1. The complainant has available to him another remedy or channel of complaint which he could reasonably be expected to use.
2. The grievance pertains to a matter outside the citizens' aide power.
3. The complainant has no substantive or procedural interest which is directly affected by the matter complained about.
4. The complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious, or not made in good faith.
5. Other complaints are more worthy of attention.
6. The citizens' aide resources are insufficient for adequate investigation.
7. The complaint has been delayed too long to justify present examination of its merit.

The citizens' aide may decline to investigate a complaint, but shall not be prohibited from inquiring into the matter complained about or into related problems at some future time.

REVISED STATUTES OF NEBRASKA 1943 (Reissue of 1971), §81-8,247 re authority of Public Counsel (Ombudsman) to refuse to investigate a complaint

81-8,247. Public Counsel; complaint; investigation; decision; notify complainant. The Public Counsel may receive a complaint from any person concerning an administrative act. He shall conduct a suitable investigation into the thing complained of unless he believes that:

- (1) The complainant has available to him another remedy which he could reasonably be expected to use;
- (2) The grievance pertains to a matter outside his power;
- (3) The complainant's interest is insufficiently related to the subject matter;
- (4) The complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious, or not made in good faith;
- (5) Other complaints are more worthy of attention;
- (6) His resources are insufficient for adequate investigation; or
- (7) The complaint has been too long delayed to justify present examination of its merit.

The Public Counsel's declining to investigate a complaint shall not bar him from proceeding on his own motion to inquire into related problems. After completing his consideration of a complaint, whether or not it has been investigated, the Public Counsel shall suitably inform the complainant and the administrative agency involved.
