III. ANALYSIS (See Fiscal Note Preparation Instructions, Section III)

Unemployment Insurance coverage was extended to state and local government workers on 1/1/78. In the law extending coverage, Secs 32-34, ch. 122 SLA 1977 provided for the repeal of state law, if 26 USC 3304(a) (b) was either declared unconstitutional or repealed by Congress. To date, this has not occurred. This bill would provide coverage to state and local government employees even if the federal law were changed. Unemployment insurance costs are currently being included in all state budgets and this bill would maintain the status quo.

III. ANALYSIS (See Fiscal Note Preparation Instructions, Section III)

Unemployment Insurance coverage was extended to state and local government workers on 1/1/78. In the law extending coverage, Secs 32-34, ch. 122 SLA 1977 provided for the repeal of state law, if 26 USC 3304(a)(b) was either declared unconstitutional or repealed by Congress. To date, this has not occurred. This bill would provide coverage to state and local government employees even if the federal law were changed. Unemployment insurance costs are currently being included in all state budgets and this bill would maintain the status quo.

Chairman, Senate Health, Education

SUBJECT: Auditory, Visual, and Dental Insurance

DATE: April 30, 1979

Identical bills to provide the above-referenced insurance for retired individuals were entered in the Senate and in the House. The House Bill number was HB 26, the Senate Bill number was SB 24. Under both bills, the retired employee would have paid one-half the cost of the insurance, the retirement fund would have paid the other half. The Division of Retirement and Benefits submitted a fiscal note indicating the cost to the system would be $1,608,300 for the PERS and $1,199,200 for the TRS.

In the Senate, SB 24 was amended to allow the retiree to pay 90% of the cost and the system to pay the other 10%. The fiscal note on the amended version indicated a cost of $330,100 to the PERS and $248,000 to the TRS.

The House passed HB 26 with an amendment indicating the retiree would pay the full cost of the insurance.

About a week ago we had a number of lobbyists in Juneau representing the NRTA and the AARP. I think that one or the other of these individuals visited every Representative and Senator. The message that was brought to me by these retired individuals was that they did not object to paying the cost of this insurance, they were pleased to even be able to purchase it since the cost would be much higher on the open market.

With that information in hand, I made the motion in Senate Finance Committee to move CS HB 26, the bill that requires retirees to pay the full cost of the insurance.
