Sackett Section 168: Specifies that $400,000 of the $4,723,124 FY '83 appropriation for fisheries enhancement tax refunds is set aside for the Cook Inlet Aquaculture Association pending legal claims.

Bennett Section 169: Reduces $350,000 from a $674,700 FY '83 appropriation for the Council on Economic Advisors. The $350,000 reduction represents a legislative add-on to conduct economic impacts study.

Bennett Section 170: Appropriates $350,000 to the University of Alaska for engineering and design of the petroleum engineering/geology building at the Fairbanks campus.

Bennett Section 171: Changes language to allow the Ester fire department to spend a $319,000 FY '81 appropriation on apparatus and area mapping in addition to the current authority to purchase equipment.

Bennett Section 172: Changes language to allow the Ester fire department to spend a $35,000 FY '84 appropriation on apparatus and equipment instead of a quick attack portable pumper.

Faiks Section 173: Changes language from road construction to development and construction of a recreation facility on a $379,300 FY '84 appropriation to the Department of Education for Barrier Free Recreation.

Ferguson Section 174: Reappropriates the balance of funds remaining, which is approximately $270,000, from the $2,370,000 FY '83 appropriation for weatherization from the Department of Commerce and Economic Development to the Department of Community and Regional Affairs.

Herrmann Section 175: Extends to June 30, 1984 the lapse dates on a $40,000 for a fisheries loan officer in Dillingham; $3,500 for office space for the loan officer in Dillingham; and $125,000 for the Regional Education Attendance Area (REAA) Oversight Committee for a maintenance and operations study.

- Herrmann Section 176: Extends to June 30, 1984 the lapse date on the Federal Budget Impact Fund which has approximately $4,900,000 remaining.
- Bussell Section 177: Extends to June 30, 1987 the $355,500 FY '83 appropriation to the Department of Health and Social Services for the correctional industries program.
- Bennett Section 178: Makes a capital appropriation of the $100,000 FY '83 appropriation to the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities, Interior region planning for right-of-way program.
- Bennett Section 179: The Interior region planning right-of-way appropriation is removed from one year appropriation designation.
- V. Fischer Section 180: Makes a capital appropriation of the $2,370,000 FY '83 appropriation for weatherization.
- Governor Section 181: Makes capital appropriations of $9,451,000 to the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities including: ferry system annual improvements $2,000,000; Ch. 120, SLA 1980 Interior supplemental $400,000; Contingency Transportation $3,000,000; Rail and Grade separation study 250,000; Project inspect warranty fund $250,000; Transportation research program $3,301,000 and wave measurement design program $250,000; Makes capital appropriation of $10,000,000 to the University of Alaska including: Building repairs and renovation $5,000,000; University of Alaska computer network $3,000,000; and Acquisition of instructional equipment and library books $2,000,000.
