COMMENTS BEFORE HOUSE HESS

FEBRUARY 11, 1983

THE ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE IS EMPOWERED BY ALASKA'S CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE 10, SECTION 6, TO ACT AS BOROUGH ASSEMBLY TO THE UNORGANIZED BOROUGH. THIS CREATES A PARTICULAR LEGISLATIVE RESPONSIBILITY WITH REGARD TO THE REAA SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

IN 1980, THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE APPOINTED MEMBERS TO A SPECIAL REGIONAL EDUCATION ATTENDANCE AREA BUDGET OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE. THE STATED FUNCTION OF THIS COMMITTEE WAS TO PROVIDE ACCOUNTABILITY FUNCTIONS SIMILAR TO THOSE WHICH MUNICIPALITIES EXERCISE OVER THEIR SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

THE REAA COMMITTEE HAS HELD EXTENSIVE HEARINGS DURING WHICH THE REAA SCHOOL DISTRICTS HAVE DISCUSSED FISCAL AND BUDGETARY CONCERNS.

THE COMMITTEE HAS REPORTED TO THE LEGISLATURE ON RURAL EDUCATIONAL ISSUES SUCH AS THE MONETARY AND EDUCATIONAL IMPACT OF TEACHER HOUSING AND TEACHER TURNOVER; THE COST OF SCHOOL DISTRICT COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY AND NON-EDUCATIONAL SERVICES; BUDGETARY CONSTRAINTS ON PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT IN THE REAAS; AS WELL AS CONDUCTING ANNUAL FISCAL COMPARISONS OF THE REAAS BETWEEN FISCAL YEARS 1977 AND 1982.

AS THE NEWLY ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE SPECIAL JOINT REAA BUDGET OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE, I SEE AREAS IN WHICH THE COMMITTEES WORK SHOULD BE CONTINUED, AND IN SOME INSTANCES, EXPANDED.

PRESENTLY, SCHOOL DISTRICTS ARE REQUIRED TO SUBMIT THEIR FY 84 BUDGETS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION BY MAY 31, 1983.

THE PRESENT TIME FRAME AND THE POLICY OF THE PAST ADMINISTRATION MEANS THAT THESE BUDGETS HAVE BEEN BASICALLY CHECKED FOR ERRORS OF FORMAT AND CLERICAL ERRORS AND THEN RUBBER-STAMPED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. I SEE THIS AS AN AREA IN WHICH THE COMMITTEE AND THE LEGISLATURE MUST FIND A SOLUTION.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14 CONTAINS A RESOLUTION CLAUSE WHICH ASKS THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO REVIEW AND RECOMMEND ACTION ON THE OPERATING BUDGETS OF REAAS BY AUGUST 15. THE REAA COMMITTEE WOULD THEN REVIEW THOSE FINDINGS. COMPLIANCE WITH THIS CLAUSE WOULD ALLOW THESE BUDGETS TO RECEIVE SOME SCRUTINY BY THE ADMINISTRATION.

AN ADDITIONAL CONCERN OF THE COMMITTEE IS THE BURDEN WHICH HIGH MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS COSTS IN THE REAAS PLACES ON THEIR INSTRUCTIONAL BUDGET AND ON THE STATE GENERAL FUND.

THE REAA COMMITTEE IS CONTINUING TO DEFINE ITS FUNCTION AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN FOLLOWING THE

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN BY THE SPEAKER AND THE PRESIDENT IN 1980.

THANK YOU MR. CHAIRMAN.

(c) The flag should be displayed daily, weather permitting, on or near the main administration building of every public institution.

(f) The flag should be displayed in or near every polling place on election days.

(g) The flag should be displayed during school days in or near every schoolhouse.

SEC. 3. That the flag, when carried in a procession with another flag or flags, should be either on the marching right; that is, the flag's own right, or, if there is a line of other flags, in front of the center of that line.

(a) The flag should not be displayed on a float in a parade except from a staff, or as provided in subsection (i).

(b) The flag should not be draped over the hood, top, sides, or back of a vehicle or of a railroad train or a boat. When the flag is displayed on a motorcar, the staff shall be fixed firmly to the chassis or clamped to the radiator cap.

(c) No other flag or pennant should be placed above or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag of the United States of America, except during church services conducted by naval chaplains at sea, when the church pennant may be flown above the flag during church services for the personnel of the Navy.

No person shall display the flag of the United Nations or any other national or international flag equal, above, or in a position of superior prominence or honor to, or in place of, the flag of the United States at any place within the United States or any Territory or possession thereof: Provided, That nothing in this section shall make unlawful the continuance of the practice heretofore followed of displaying the flag of the United Nations in a position of superior prominence or honor, and other national flags in positions of equal prominence or honor, with that of the flag of the United States at the headquarters of the United Nations.

(d) The flag of the United States of America, when it is displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, should be on the right, the flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

(c) The flag of the United States of America should be at the center and at the highest point of the group when a number of flags of States or localities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs.

(f) When flags of States, cities, or localities, or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States, the latter should always be at the peak. When the flags are flown from adjacent staffs, the flag of the United States should be hoisted first and lowered last. No such flag or pennant may be placed above the flag of the United States or to the right of the flag of the United States.

(g) When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they are to be flown from separate staffs of the same height. The flags should be of approximately equal size. International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace.

(h) When the flag of the United States is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony, or front of a building, the union of the flag should be placed at the peak of the staff unless the flag is at half staff. When the flag is suspended over a sidewalk from a rope extending from a house to a pole at the edge of the sidewalk, the flag should be hoisted out, union first, from the building.

(i) When the flag is displayed otherwise than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out, or so suspended that its folds fall as free as though the flag were staffed.

(j) When the flag is displayed over the middle of the street, it should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east and west street or to the east in a north and south street.

(k) When used on a speaker's platform, the flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker. When displayed from a staff in a church or public auditorium, if it is displayed in the chancel of a church, or on the speaker's platform in a public auditorium, the flag should occupy the position of honor and be placed at the clergyman's or speaker's right as he faces the congregation or audience. Any other flag so displayed in the chancel or on the platform should be placed at the clergyman's or speaker's left as he faces the congregation or audience. But when the flag is displayed from a staff in a church or public auditorium elsewhere than in the chancel or on the platform it shall be placed in the position of honor at the right of the congregation or audience as they face the chancel or platform. Any other flag so displayed should be placed on the left of the congregation or audience as they face the chancel or platform.

(l) The flag should form a distinctive feature of the ceremony of unveiling a statue or monument, but it should never be used as the covering for the statue or monument.

(m) The flag, when flown at half staff, should be first hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position. The flag should be again raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day. By "half staff" is meant lowering the flag to one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff. Crepe streamers may be affixed to spear heads or flagstaves in a parade only by order of the President of the United States.

(n) When the flag is used to cover a casket, it should be so placed that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The flag should not be lowered into the grave or allowed to touch the ground.

SEC. 4. That no disrespect should be shown to the flag of the United States of America; the flag should not be dipped to any person or thing. Regimental colors, State flags, and organization or institutional flags are to be dipped as a mark of honor.

(a) The flag should never be displayed with the union down save as a signal of dire distress.

(b) The flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water, or merchandise.

(c) The flag should never be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.

(d) The flag should never be used as drapery of any sort whatsoever, never festooned, drawn back, nor up, in folds, but always allowed to fall free. Bunting of blue, white, and red, always arranged with the blue above, the white in the middle, and the red below, should be used for covering a speaker's desk, draping the front of a platform, and for decoration in general.

(e) The flag should never be fastened, displayed, used, or stored in such a manner as will permit it to be easily torn, soiled, or damaged in any way.

(f) The flag should never be used as a covering for a ceiling.

(g) The flag should never have placed upon it, nor on any part of it, nor attached to it any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture, or drawing of any nature.

(h) The flag should never be used as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying, or delivering anything.

(i) The flag should never be used for advertising purposes in any manner whatsoever. It should not be embroidered on such articles as cushions or handkerchiefs and the like, printed or otherwise impressed on paper napkins or boxes or anything that is designed for temporary use and discard; or used as any portion of a costume or athletic uniform. Advertising signs should not be fastened to a staff or halyard from which the flag is flown.

(j) The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.

SEC. 5. That during the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag or when the flag is passing in a parade or in a review, all persons present should face the flag, stand at attention, and salute. Those present in uniform should render the military salute. When not in uniform, men should remove the headdress with the right hand holding it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. Men without hats should salute in the same manner. Aliens should stand at attention. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart. The salute to the flag in the moving column should be rendered at the moment the flag passes.

SEC. 6. That when the national anthem is played and the flag is not displayed, all present should stand and face toward the music. Those in uniform should salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining this position until the last note. All others should stand at attention, men removing the headdress. When the flag is displayed, all present should face the flag and salute.

SEC. 7. That the following is designated as the pledge of allegiance to the flag: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." Such pledge should be rendered by standing with the right hand over the heart. However, civilians will always show full respect to the flag when the pledge is given by merely standing at attention, men removing the headdress. Persons in uniform shall render the military salute.

SEC. 8. Any rule or custom pertaining to the display of the flag of the United States of America, set forth herein, may be altered, modified, or repealed, or additional rules with respect thereto may be prescribed, by the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, whenever he deems it to be appropriate or desirable; and any such alteration or additional rule shall be set forth in a proclamation.
