POSITION PAPER
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 2
"An Act Establishing a Children's Law Task Force"

This concurrent resolution would mandate the creation of a Children's Law Task Force composed of agency representatives as well as public members to study current Alaska Statutes and agency operations in order to make reform recommendations.

The resolution would have no immediate impact on Office of Public Advocacy or its programs.

The Office of Public Advocacy supports House Concurrent Resolution No. 4 because it would create a needed forum in which a comprehensive study of laws affecting children and agencies' implementation of such laws could be conducted.

POSITION PAPER

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 2

"For a Resolution establishing a Children's Law Task Force."

This Resolution would establish a task force to study Alaska statutes and regulations relating to children and the problems of implementing those statutes and regulations. The task force is charged with making recommendations to the Legislature on any changes to the statutes appropriate and necessary to improving the condition of children in the state.

The Department supports the concept of establishing a task force to study the circumstances of Alaska's children. Periodic review and evaluation of statutes, regulations, and programs implementing the laws are useful in assessing the effectiveness of policy directions and administrative efforts. A similar task force was an effective mechanism in accomplishing major revisions to the Alaska's Children's Code, which occurred in 1977.

However, comprehensive and practical evaluations of statutory and administrative effectiveness must include a review of the needs or issues being addressed and the adequacy of resources devoted to implementing the policies embodied in the laws. For this reason, the Commissioners of the Departments of Community and Regional Affairs, Education, and Health and Social Services urged the Governor to appoint a task force that would "undertake a comprehensive analysis of the state of children and youth in Alaska" (emphasis added; see the attached memorandum, dated March 2, 1987, to Governor Cowper).

The Governor concurred in this suggestion and, on March 6, 1987, announced the establishment of the Governor's Interim Commission on Children and Youth (GICCY).

One of the charges to the GICCY is to "review those state and municipal laws and regulations relating to children and recommend appropriate changes where the conflicts between existing laws force inequitable treatment or lack of accountability." This charge is very similar to that contained in the Children's Law Task Force, proposed by SCR 2. However, it is important to keep such reforms in the context of all delivery systems and programs by and through which we serve -- or do not serve -- children and youth.

RECEIVED

MAR 20 1987

LEGISLATIVE FINANCE

Because the GICCY has been created, and in order to avoid a fractured approach to the wide range of important issues involving children and youth, the Department prefers the Governor's more holistic approach to addressing children's issues, which will include a necessary review of children's laws.

We are writing to propose the establishment of a task force whose purpose would be to recommend a first class child care system and undertake a comprehensive analysis of the state of children and youth in Alaska.

We are struck by the considerable interest in children that we currently see reflected in both the public and private sectors of our State. We urge the creation of this statewide task force now, in order to capture this broad based interest. The appointment of this task force is timely because:

- the economics of child care is a key component to building a strong Alaska, because, as you have pointed out, "there are social and economic problems which can be directly attributed to a lack of adequate, quality child care in the State."
- a number of bills before the Legislature right now are specifically related to children and youth, including two resolutions pending in both houses regarding the formation of a "Children's Law Task Force" that would review the myriad statutes and regulations pertaining to issues involving children;
- members of the House Committee on Health, Education and Social Services (HESS), together with Representative Peter Goll, recently held a well-attended meeting regarding "gaps and overlaps" in the State's human services delivery system;

- ° beginning this week, the House HESS Committee will spend an entire week focused on Services for Children and Youth in Alaska, taking testimony from the staff of four departments and many private, non-profit human services provider agencies;
- ° an increasing number of parents, educators, health care and social service providers, and policy makers have become demonstrably concerned about early childhood health and education issues, because of the crucial importance of these early years and the favorable long-term outcomes of investing in high quality early childhood programs;
- ° other groups of parents, educators, human services providers, and policy makers are focused on issues surrounding the large number of children and youth on the run in Alaska;
- ° many parents, private agencies, and others involved with children have expressed concern that Alaska's statutes and regulations regarding children, and the State agencies that administer those laws and regulations, have failed to deal adequately with many of the problems that face children and parents in today's complex society; and
- ° finally, of course, there are many very real, abiding budget issues being raised almost hour by hour, issues which serve only to further arouse justifiable concerns over the ability of the State to meet even basic nurturing and protective services for its most vulnerable citizens.

Although these diverse issues and interest groups certainly speak to some of the more critical children's concerns, they do little to help us channel our talents and energies towards a comprehensive analysis of the array of problems related to the care and education of our children and youth. Additionally, the splintering that too often results from this undirected concern can ultimately be detrimental to the best interests of children. We do not find this to be the best environment in which to forge good, objective public policy regarding the true needs of our children and youth.

The formation of a statewide task force, however, would serve as a vehicle to focus on the current status of children and youth (ages 0-18) in Alaska. This group will

- *develop a plan for a first class child care system;
- *provide a forum to address much needed statutory and regulatory reforms;
- *pay special attention to the health and appropriate educational needs of our young children;
- *address the problems of our delinquents and runaways;
- *conduct a children's "census;" and
- *address the gaps and overlaps in programs serving our children.

More importantly, however, this group will keep all these issues in context, because it will look at all these issues together, not separately: a holistic view, if you will, of the state of our children and youth, and the systems and programs by and through which we serve -- or do not serve -- them.

Attached to this memorandum is the formal proposal for you to consider. We believe the charge to this working group (tentatively called the "Governor's Task Force on Children and Youth") should be specific; it's lifetime should be relatively short: portions of its work must be accomplished between now and January of next year, the rest by January of 1989. We believe that the task force must be representative of interest groups from early childhood through adolescence, but it should not be too large a group; we believe it must be "blue ribbon," in order to garner the support and credibility necessary to make its processes consensual and its work product practical.

Because children are powerless, children need powerful friends. The question must be asked: has Alaska kept its best and brightest resource -- its children and youth -- at the top of its priorities? We ask you, as the Chief Executive of this State, to affirm your commitment to children by announcing the formation of the task force.

A PROPOSAL FOR A GOVERNOR'S TASK FORCE ON CHILDREN AND YOUTH

GOAL

The goal of the Governor's Task Force on Children and Youth is to place children and youth higher on the public policy agenda of the State of Alaska and to ensure a high-quality, responsive, accessible system for all children, youth, and families in Alaska.

A LIST OF POTENTIAL OBJECTIVES OF THE TASK FORCE

- 1) To produce a comprehensive plan for child care and a coherent State policy for children and youth.
- 2) To determine what the State of Alaska believes are the basic needs of children and youth.
- 3) To produce an accurate, detailed inventory of all services and programs provided to children and youth in this State. The inventory should identify all existing State, municipal, non-profit, corporate, religious, and private programs and services for our children and youth.
- 4) To collect all available statistics from the various public and private providers of children's services, in order to assess the physical and emotional health of our children and their financial well-being. In addition, to report on trends in such areas as the growth in the number of "latchkey" children, the costs of raising a child, the cost of poverty, etc.
- 5) To conduct, after an analysis of the data gathered, a detailed and information-specific census of Alaskan children (ages 0 - 18) for use in evaluating the adequacy of public and private services.
- 6) To analyze and make recommendations concerning the status of both public and private interagency cooperation and coordination in Alaska; further, to focus on the role these agencies should play in the unified delivery of services to our children.
- 7) To review those State and municipal laws and regulations relating to children and recommend appropriate changes where the conflicts between existing laws force inequitable treatment or lack of accountability.
- 8) To consider the State as a model employer for working families.

TASK FORCE MEMBERSHIP

The task force should be broadly composed to represent legislators, child care professionals, educators, health professionals, parents, business and labor leaders, clergy, and the Departments of Community and Regional Affairs, Education, Health and Social Services, and Public Safety. The Task Force should have no more than 15 members.

BUDGET

We believe that support for this effort must come from both the public and private sectors. Clearly, the State departments are willing to bear their expenses in support of the task force. We suggest that one of the group's first tasks must be to seek funding of its efforts. We believe funding is necessary for 1) travel expenses, including hearings in urban and rural Alaska; 2) contractual services for data collection, audio conferencing, assistance in conducting the census, and facilitating the workings of the task force itself; and 3) publication of the findings and recommendations of the task force.

To assist the task force in its work, the Alaska Department of Education has received a two-year, $125,000 technical (i.e., non-cash) assistance grant from the National Association of State Boards of Education.

TIMELINE

The objectives of this task force are critical. We need much of the information to be collected and analyzed before being ready to go forward in developing coherent policy. The charge of this task force has both short and long term goals. A portion of the task force's work should be accomplished by January 1, 1988, particularly the data collection and analysis, the census, a review of pertinent laws and regulations, and a plan for a child care system. Recognizing that other portions of the task, however, will require more time, research, and deliberation, we recommend that it fully complete its tasks no later than January 1, 1989.

Fiscal Note Analysis
SCR 3

1. Analysis of the fiscal impact on existing programs.

The total cost of the project is estimated to be $142,000,000. The first phase, the widening of a the Glenn Highway to four lanes from Eklutna to the Parks Highway, is estimated to cost $60,000,000. The Department already has approximately $8,000,000 of this authorization which will enable work to continue through FY'89. The additional estimated $52,000,000 authorization, which will be needed to complete the first phase of the project, will be included in future budget requests.

The ultimate project, which would contain interchanges at the Parks and Old Glenn Highways, is estimated to cost $142,000,000. The $100,000 authorization for the Preliminary Engineering of the Glenn Highway/Parks Highway Interchange is anticipated to be requested in FY'90. The balance of the needed funding is beyond the horizon of the 6-year Capital Improvement Program.

2. Analysis of the fiscal impact on new programs.

This project is currently under development.

3. Analysis of how the figures in the fiscal note were developed.

The FY'90 $35,100,000 and the FY'91 $17,000,000 capital amounts are the Department's current best estimate of authorization needed to complete the first phase. $100,000 of the $35,100,000 amount will allow the start of preliminary engineering for the Parks/Glenn Interchange.

Beginning in FY'92 there would be at least $250,000 yearly in additional maintenance costs. This is computed by multiplying 30 new lane miles of road: 10 miles x 3 (2 additional lanes + wide shoulders) by the estimated $7,500 cost per lane mile and providing for $25,000 annual repairs to the new bridges. If at that time new equipment is required, the costs could be substantially higher.

4. Other information.

The DOT&PF agrees that widening the Glenn Highway from Eklutna to Parks Highway to four lanes is a much needed project, and in fact, has included it as a high priority in the Six Year Capital Improvement Program. Through the Mat-Su Borough planning process, this project has been identified as the top priority project for the area.'

Specifically, the ultimate project would widen the Glenn Highway to four lanes from Eklutna to the Parks Highway with interchanges at the Parks and Old Glenn Highways. The first phase of the project (widening to four lanes) is estimated to cost $60,000,000. The total cost with interchanges is estimated to be $142,000,000.

The Department spent approximately $460,000 in FY'83-'85, $270,000 in FY'86, and we estimate $305,000 will be spent in FY'87 and $200,000 in FY'88 on this project. This money was spent to meet project develop requirements of the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) such as the location report, Draft Impact Statement, etc. As mentioned above, additional authorization will be requested in future budgets when needed.

A community meeting was held in Wasilla on October 29, 1985 to introduce the project and explain the development process of a federal aid project. One of the major hurdles, the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS), was submitted to the FHWA on December 18, 1986. Following approval of the DEIS by the FHWA, the project will proceed to design. We anticipate that right-of-way acquisition could begin as early as 1989 and construction could be completed in 1992. At this time there is no reason to believe this project cannot be developed in a timely manner.

Wetlands and wildlife habitat impacts are part of the social and environmental issues being addressed in the DEIS. We do not anticipate any problems with the wetlands as the Alaska Legislature exempted the right-of-way for the project from legislation establishing the Palmer Hay Flats Game Refuge (AS 16.20.032), and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Corps of Engineers have cooperated with our development efforts. There will be some required wetland mitigation, but the extent will not be known until the DEIS has been accepted by the FHWA.
