ANALYSIS

ALASKA HEALTHY BABY PROJECT

PLAN FOR IMPLEMENTATION

1. Add all pregnant women and children up to one year of age with monthly incomes up to 100% of the federal poverty level for Alaska to the Medicaid Program. The program design includes:
 - * one time eligibility determination for pregnant women. Once found eligible, the woman would retain Medicaid through the 60 day postpartum period. An income eligible pregnant woman may receive Medicaid as soon as pregnancy is medically verified. Children are automatically eligible for the 60 day postpartum period once the mother verifies the birth date.
 - * no resource (asset) limit for pregnant women and children.
 - * pregnant women and children will be eligible for all Medicaid services offered under the State Plan.

(Estimate 974 eligibles: \$4,163 per pregnant woman x 974 = \$4,054,762 + \$1,198 per child x 974 = \$1,166,852 = Total \$5,221,614). These cost estimates are based on actual average 1986 expenditure data for pregnant women and children age 5 and under. NOTE: the January 1, 1989 implementation date will result in $\frac{1}{2}$ the program expenditures under Medicaid services for pregnant women and children during the first year.

2. Add case management services, as an enhanced service to pregnant women, to coordinate health care service delivery. This service will be particularly targeted at women with high risk pregnancies, and must be offered to all Medicaid-eligible pregnant women. The program will be implemented by hiring four nurse consultant public health nurses in the Division of Public Health to be case managers. These positions will operate from Anchorage, Fairbanks, Bethel and Juneau. The nurses will receive Medicaid referral of all pregnant women in order that each may be evaluated as to their pregnancy risk factor. The case managers will coordinate the health care services delivered, assure that pregnant women receive necessary services, and assist with arranging appointments and transportation. Uniform perinatal guidelines will be adopted to assure that pregnant women are receiving adequate care. Also hired, will be a Nurse IV Pre-Natal Coordinator for the Division of Medical Assistance to coordinate case management services, perform a utilization review function on expenditures for pregnant women and children, design and manage computer reports to monitor program objectives, establish criteria to evaluate improved pregnancy outcome, and evaluate program compliance. All positions will be at 75/25 federal/state match since each will be filled with medical personnel.

3. Add nutrition services under enhanced services to pregnant women beginning in the second year. This service must be provided to all pregnant women. (Estimate that 15% of pregnant women would need nutrition counseling because of high risk pregnancy. Average two visits per person X 600 persons x $30/visit)
4. New eligibility technicians in the Division of Public Assistance to review applications, conduct interviews, verify eligibility and authorize medical coupons for the new population of pregnant women and children eligible under this Medicaid option. There will be two new positions in year one and three new positions in year two, with a one time outlay of $3,000 per position for desk, chair, file cabinet and computer terminal.
5. This change in the Medicaid Program will require a system support increase to the Eligibility Information System (EIS) of the Division of Public Assistance, and will require lead time to accomplish (the January 1, 1989 implementation date).

STATE OF ALASKA
THE LEGISLATURE

POUCH Y - STATE CAPITOL
JUNEAU, ALASKA 99811

LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS AGENCY

MEMORANDUM

January 28, 1988

SUBJECT: Constitutionality of bill title of
 CSHB 342(HESS)

TO: Representative Johnny Ellis and Representative Niilo Koponen
 Co-Chairmen, House HESS Committee

FROM: Edward H. Hein EHA
 Legislative Counsel

After further review of the bill title adopted by the House HESS Committee for CSHB 342 (HESS), a question has been raised about its constitutionality. Under art. II, sec. 13 of the Alaska Constitution, the subject of each bill must be expressed in the title. It is thought that the title does not adequately reflect changes made by sec. 3 of the bill. That section amends AS 47.07.035, which establishes the order in which Medicaid coverage is to be eliminated if there is not enough money allocated in the state budget to provide coverage for all services and groups on the list. The higher a service is on the list the sooner it is eliminated. Thus, by placing pregnant women and needy children on the list as number 16 out of 21 items, those services numbered 1 - 15 are affected. Since the bill title does not mention that this priority is affected, it is arguable that the title does not meet the constitutional requirement, and that the bill could be subject to a legal challenge on that basis. Therefore, it is recommended that the prudent course would be to amend the bill title accordingly.

I would recommend the following amendment for your consideration:

At page 1, line 7, after "women" insert "; and reordering the priorities for eliminating coverage under medicaid"

It is my understanding that you will advise the next committee of referral, the House Finance Committee, of this memorandum.

HB 342

"An Act relating to medical assistance for needy persons."

I. Purpose of HB 342

The purpose of HB 342 is to add two new groups of eligibles to the Medicaid Program: Pregnant women and children up to the age of five whose household incomes do not exceed 100% of the federal poverty level. The children would be phased in by age, one year each year until all children age five and under are covered.

II. Sectional Analysis

- Section 1 Section 1 amends AS 47.07.020 (b), which delineates the optional groups of people who are eligible for Medicaid, by adding pregnant women and children up to age five whose household incomes do not exceed 100% of the federal poverty level.
- Section 2 Section 2 amends AS 47.07.030 (b) to specify that case management and nutrition services for pregnant women are covered Medicaid services in Alaska.
- Section 3 Section 3 amends AS 47.07.035 by adding pregnant women and children up to the age of five whose household incomes do not exceed 100% of the federal poverty level to the existing list. The purpose of this section is to provide guidance to the department on the order in which optional Medicaid services and optional coverage groups are to be eliminated in the case of inadequate funding for the Medicaid Program.

III. Recommendations

Congress created this new Medicaid option recognizing that one in four children in America live in poverty; that the number of children living in poverty has grown each year since 1975; and that the United States is tied for last place among the 22 industrialized nations in infant mortality. In Alaska, although our welfare standards are generous compared with many other states, we have the highest mortality rate of all 50 states for infants between one month and one year of age.

This Medicaid option allows the state great flexibility in providing Medicaid coverage to pregnant women and children, while removing many of the current barriers to eligibility. It is estimated that close to 1,000 women will qualify for Medicaid each year, and nearly 5,000 children will be eligible each year when all children under age 5 are covered.

The program design would include a one time eligibility determination for pregnant women, so that once found eligible the woman would be covered by Medicaid through the 60 day postpartum period for all covered services. Additionally, this group of pregnant women and children will not be subject to the $1,000 resource limit of the Aid to Families With Dependent Children Program.

All pregnant women will receive case management services to better coordinate delivery of health care services and identify high risk pregnancies, with a goal of improved pregnancy outcome. Nutrition services will be available to high risk women who are not served by the Women, Infants and Children (WIC) Program. Children will receive all Medicaid services, including Early, Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT). EPSDT has proven especially useful in early identification and treatment of potentially handicapping medical, social and psychological conditions; it's success is due to monitoring of all Medicaid children by Public Health Nurses to assure that appropriate services are received.

Addition of this Medicaid option will allow the state to claim matching federal dollars for all general fund dollars spent on health care for pregnant women and children under five. The Department recommends that Section 2 be amended by adding "and nutrition" after "case management" so that nutrition services will be available to high risk women who are not served by the Women, Infants and Children (WIC) Program.

The Department believes enactment of this legislation would be a sound investment in children which would pay for itself economically and socially. The Department spends millions of dollars each year on neo-natal intensive care and long term institutional care for children which may have been prevented by provision of adequate pre-natal care to their mothers. It has been estimated that $1.00 spent on pre-natal care could ultimately save up to $11.00 if all the costs of caring for permanently disabled children are considered.

However, the expense of this program requires policy makers to consider the many competing and worthy needs of the medically indigent and others. The Governor's Interim Commission on Children and Youth (GICCY) recommended the pregnant women Medicaid option authorized by this legislation in its report. A plan for the implementation of the GICCY recommendations is being developed by the Governor.

PREVENTION SAVES ALASKA'S BABIES AND THE STATE'S MONEY

- National data shows lack of prenatal care as the most significant factor in problem births, including prematurity, infants of low birthweight and infant deaths and disabilities.
- A woman without adequate prenatal care has twice the risk of her infant being born with low birthweight and twice the risk of infant death as the infant born to a mother with adequate care.
- Low birthweight babies can suffer tragic outcomes and must endure extensive and costly medical care: about 20% of all neonatal intensive care unit graduates have major medical problems by age two. Up to 60% have some physical or intellectual difficulties by age five.
- Every $1.00 spent on comprehensive prenatal care saves $2.00 in the first year of an infant's life alone, because of the reduced need for hospital care.
- Every $1.00 spent on prenatal care saves up to $11.00 when all costs of caring for permanently disabled children are included.
- Every $1.00 spent on women at high risk for delivering low birthweight babies saves $3.40 during the surviving infants' first year of life.
- Prenatal care that begins early in pregnancy and provides a woman with the medical, nutritional and supportive services she and her baby need has been shown to reduce the incidence of low birthweight by 30%.
- Prenatal care is most effective in improving the health of high risk mothers and babies, whether the risk is from medical factors, or social factors or both.
- 3/4 of the factors that lead to low birthweight can be evaluated in the first prenatal visit and appropriate intervention, such as counseling on substance abuse, can begin early to reduce risks.
- Prenatal visits routinely include blood pressure checks and blood urine tests to screen for conditions which if left unprotected and untreated can cause major problems to the mother or her baby.
- Routine prenatal tests can detect treatable conditions which lead to poor pregnancy outcomes.

THE HEALTH OF ALASKA'S MOTHERS AND BABIES

- Each year, about 2,000 or 16% of all births in Alaska occur to women who recieve inadequate or no prenatal care.
- The average total cost for prenatal, labor and delivery care in Alaska is $3,500..... less than the cost of 1 1/2 days in a neonatal intensive care unit.
- In 1984, 608 babies were born low in Alaska weighing less than 5 1/2 pounds, most of whom required expensive ($2,500/day) neonatal intensive care; 142 babies died before reaching their first birthday.
- In 1986, an estimated 2,140 women in Alaska were not able to afford prenatal care in their crucial first trimester.
- Low birthweight babies constituted less than 5% of all births in Alaska in 1984, but accounted for more than 40% of all infant deaths.
- Alaska's low birthweight rate has remained fairly constant.... we have made very little progress in preventing low birthweight.
- Alaska's women most in need of prenatal care are least likely to receive it: single, nonwhite, teens and those with little education or income.
- The hight cost of prenatal and hospital delivery care is cited repeatedly as the predominant barrier in preventing low income women from obtaining needed prenatal care.
- Medicaid provides coverage for < 78% of the poor in Alaska.

A PROPOSAL FOR COMPREHENSIVE PRENATAL CARE AND HEALTH SERVICES FOR CHILDREN

ALASKA HEALTHY BABY PROJECT

WHAT IS IT?

The Alaska Healthy Baby Project would provide prenatal care, delivery and other health services to pregnant women who have incomes up to 100% of the federal poverty level.

The Alaska Healthy Baby Project would insure that prenatal care can begin as soon as pregnancy is confirmed, to include regular physical examinations, monitoring of the pregnancy, treatment of correctable conditions, assistance in making behavioral changes to reduce the risk of harm to mother and child, and assistance in securing basic needs such as good nutrition.

Children whose families have incomes up to 100% of the federal poverty level would receive a broad spectrum of preventive, screening and treatment services to assure optimum health status in the first five years of life. It is estimated that 5,000 children would receive additional medical coverage over the five year period.

Case management would be available through Public Health Nurses to Medicaid-eligible pregnant women to assess their health problems, coordinate their access to necessary medical care, and refer them to providers of social, education and other services. Promoting individual needs and appropriate prenatal care and health services, case management would aid in reducing complications of pregnancy, and diminish the frequency and severity of handicaps associated with premature delivery and low birth weight infants.

Nutrition services would also be made available to Medicaid-eligible pregnant women to assist those women identified as having complex nutritional, medical and social risk factors requiring intensive nutrition education. Through case managers, all pregnant women would be referred to the Women Infants and Children (WIC) Nutrition Program, however certain high risk women require services beyond the scope of WIC and would be served through enhanced nutritional services.

WHO

Under this Medicaid option, an estimated 974 low income women would be eligible for Medicaid coverage through their pregnancy and postpartum periods. This would increase, by a minimum of 22.2%, the number of pregnant women eligible for Medicaid services.

All children with incomes under the federal poverty level would also be eligible for Medicaid, up to age one the first year and phasing in children each year until all children under the age of five are covered.

WHY

The Alaska Healthy Baby Project is important because of the increasing number of women in Alaska who do not have access to prenatal and delivery care because they are low income but ineligible for Medicaid, or cannot afford health insurance or the cash outlay to cover the cost of those services.

Lack of prenatal care is associated with poor delivery outcomes, including prematurity, infants of low birthweight, and infant deaths and disabilities.

Research shows that improvement in the quality and availability of prenatal and delivery care reduces the need for expensive newborn intensive care.

In FY 84 the Medicaid program spent over $4.6 million dollars for 96 infants in newborn intensive care; 11 of those babies had medical costs exceeding $100,000 each.

In 1984, 141 Alaskan babies died before reaching the age of one; 72 of those infants died in the first 28 days of life.

HOW

All of these changes would require an amendment by the legislature to AS 47.07.020, 47.07.030 and 47.07.035 to allow the department to provide Medicaid to pregnant women and children whose incomes do not exceed 100% of the federal poverty level; to allow these pregnant women to receive case management and nutrition services; and to prioritize this group and these services under AS 47.07.035.

The state would also have to provide funding for these services: The FY 89 cost of adopting the option is $3,063.1 million ($1,477.5 state funds); for FY 90 the cost is $6,880.8 million ($3,397.1 state funds). The increase from FY 89 to FY 90 is because the program cannot be implemented until January 1, 1988 resulting in only ½ year funding the first year.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN?

These provisions will reduce the incidence of infant deaths, birth defects, and developmental disabilities related to insufficient prenatal care, premature birth and low birthweight; and will provide a system of preventive health care and early intervention, promote health and reduce long-term health care costs.

* The federal law allows many different ways to provide coverage to all or part of this target group, The Alaska Healthy Baby Project is one way. These options are explained in more detail in additional materials.

EXAMPLES OF GAPS IN PRENATAL CARE

Women earning over 78% of poverty are not eligible for medicaid; these women must pay cash out of pocket for prenatal care unless insured.

-- uncomplicated pregnancy = 25% of her income must go toward prenatal care

The 1984 Vital Statistics Report states that 25% (605) of Native women had inadequate prenatal care and 13% of White Alaskan women received inadequate prenatal care.

Four to five deliveries occur monthly in Anchorage emergency rooms because these women have had no prenatal care.

Alaska Women's Health Clinic in Anchorage reports 27% of their patients are not eligible for any third party reimbursement.

Providence Hospital reported that in 1986, 667 of the 2,480 births there occurred to women who had no third party reimbursement for their birth; 555 of these women have established some sort of payment plan for their birth, but 112 of these have not been able to establish a payment plan.

The state demographer estimates that 11% of the Alaska population has incomes above the Alaska poverty line, but below $18,000.

11. Inadequate Prenatal Care was characteristic of 3-4% of infant deaths compared to <2 % of all births.

Higher percentage of Inadequate Prenatal Care was found among teens and among Natives.

(Adequacy of Care could not be determined for 1/3 of all infant deaths)

OPTIONS FOR INCREASING PRENATAL SERVICES

I. Increase the number of women and children who qualify for medicaid

II. Provide a prenatal care program that would pay a portion of the cost of the medical prenatal care of the eligible women. Each woman would have a participation amount that would be dependent on her income and family size.

Eligibility

-- low income, but not eligible for medicaid

-- high risk pregnancy due to a medical condition or lack of access to prenatal care because of geographic location.

III. Enhancement of Services

-- case management

-- nutritional services

-- presumptive eligibility

-- no resource limit

-- one time eligibility

Solutions can be limited to one of these three choices or be combination of the three - see schematic.

IN SUPPORT OF HB-342

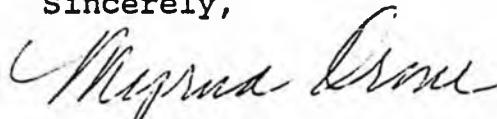

Dear Representative Adams,

Please pass HB-342 as a positive measure to make prenatal health care available to more pregnant mothers and their children. I'm sure you are well aware of the unfortunate statistics regarding the number of unhealthy babies born in Alaska.

Prenatal care is essential if we want to improve children's health. This bill can, through preventive means, save the state and its constituents millions of dollars in costs to "fix" the unhealthy children. It will allow health care for those mothers who currently are too poor to pay for expensive prenatal care and yet too "rich" to qualify for medicaid.

Please support HB-342! and work toward its early passage.

Sincerely,

Myrna Orme

ALASKA COUNCIL ON PREVENTION OF ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE, INC.

January 21, 1988

Honorable Al Adams, Chair
Representative
Alaska State Legislature
P.O. Box V
Juneau, Alaska 99811

Dear Representative Adams:

The Alaska Council on Prevention of Alcohol and Drug Abuse supports passage of HB 342, "An Act relating to medical assistance for needy persons." This legislation, which initiates The Alaska Health Baby Project, is an important step in securing adequate prenatal care for Alaska's women and infants.

As you may know, infants born to women not receiving prenatal care are twice as likely to die than infants born to women who do receive adequate prenatal services. In Alaska each year, 16 percent of all births occur to women who receive little or no prenatal care.

In a time of economic uncertainty, we realize that the cost of services must be closely scrutinized. Prenatal care is a cost-effective service. The price of only two days of intensive hospital care would adequately cover not only prenatal care, but also labor and delivery costs for a normal pregnancy.

The Alaska Council strongly supports reduction of the incidence of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and feels that the increase in prenatal care provided under HB 342 could have a positive effect on reducing one of the leading, and most preventable, causes of mental retardation in Alaska. With passage of this bill, women receiving adequate prenatal services are more likely to be made aware of the dangers of consuming alcohol during pregnancy.

We trust that when HB 342 is heard in the House Finance Committee you will consider the health and well being of future Alaskans and take positive action on their behalf.

Thank you for your consideration of our position.

Sincerely,

Bette O'Moor
Executive Director

Dear Mr. Ellis:

The purpose of this letter is to provide support for HB 34, "An Act Creating the Pacific Rim language study grant fund."

The Juneau School District is vitally interested in providing Pacific Rim language skills for the students of our district. Several of our schools have brought exchange teachers over from Japan for language and cultural education within the elementary schools. Most of these teachers are supported by parent groups who raise money through various fund-raising activities such as hotdog sales, garage sales, et cetera. As yet, we do not have budgetary means by which to support this important activity.

At the high school level, we have tried a number of ways to facilitate the teaching of Japanese and are currently contracting with the University of Alaska-Southeast to provide some Japanese language experience. We hope to be able to continue to provide service but it is dependent upon a variety of factors, including funding.

Please add us to your list of supporters. Alaska needs to be at the forefront in contributing to the communications between all Pacific Rim countries. Because of our location and our positive attitude, we have a wonderful opportunity to bridge the gaps between countries.

If you need a live example of the wonderful experiences provided by the representatives from Japan that the Juneau School District currently has, please let me know. Our Japanese exchange teachers at Gastineau and Harborview are outstanding.

Thank you for your interest in this critical issue.

Sincerely yours,

Elaine M. Hopson, Ph.D.

Dear Representative Ellis:

On behalf of the Alaska Council for the Social Studies, I would like to recognize your fine effort regarding HB343. The creation of a Pacific Rim language grant fund is of paramount importance. Two years ago I was part of an educational tour that visited schools in Indonesia, Japan, Hong Kong and the People's Republic of China. Our whole group quickly realized the significance of a working knowledge of linguistics during our school visits.

Alaska's young people need this linguistic knowledge to successfully compete with other states and countries within the Pacific Rim.

The Alaska Council for the Social Studies urges you to continue to support HB343.

Sincerely,

Louie Yannotti

Dear Mr. Ellis:

Mat-Su Borough School District supports HB 343, which creates a Pacific Rim Language Grant Fund within the Department of Education. However, the Mat-Su Borough School District has concerns about adding any new programs to the curriculum of the School District when it is presently facing budget cuts and reductions to the curriculum as a whole. For example because of budget reductions the present foreign language programs in Spanish and French are offering fewer courses to interested students.

Many of our worthwhile elective programs have been reduced or eliminated in the last two years, creating parental concern with regards to students ability to compete for scholarships in the colleges and universities of their choice.

In summary, we support HB 343 as long as sufficient monies are available to support any additions to the curriculum.

Regards,

HOUSE BILL 343

The Anchorage School District supports funding for the introduction of Pacific Rim languages in Alaska's schools.

The Anchorage School District is currently offering Japanese in two of our high schools. We are also in the process of a pilot elementary foreign language program in Japanese and/or Spanish.

Other Pacific Rim activities within the District included a Statewide conference in April of 1986 which was attended by more than 400 people. We are also pilot testing a Japanese social studies unit at the Kindergarten level and in the process of developing a first grade Chinese social studies unit. This month will mark the opening of the Asian Alaskan Cultural Center which was constructed in conjunction with one of our elementary schools.

The Anchorage School District recognizes and supports the cultural and economic ties between Alaska and the Pacific Rim. The recommendations of our Pacific Rim Advisory Committee incorporated into our long range plans include the addition of social studies units on Pacific Rim countries and the introduction of Pacific Rim languages into the curriculum. House Bill 343 would enable us to introduce additional languages without deleting any other languages or program from the current curriculum.

Dear Representative Ellis:

Thank you for providing me with copies of HB 341 and HB 343 relating to Asian Language instruction. I strongly support this proposal. I agree whole-heartedly with your expressed concern that the need for knowlege of a second language, particularly an Asian language, is going to be essential for the children in our schools today who intend to participate in the economic and business life of Alaska and the world of the twenty-first century.

As a school administrator in small rural high schools of Alaska, I have successfully introduced one such language (Russian) into the curriculum, and hope that, with funds available, I can continue to implement such instruction.

Thanks again for keeping me informed.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Johnny:

This is a response to your idea to provide 100% funding for starting or enhancing public school Asian language programs in Alaska.

Further details of the plan are needed, of course, but at the business meeting of the 1987 Conference of the Alaska Foreign Language Association, the membership came out strongly in favor of this proposal. Subsequent discussion led to the following suggestions:

1. In the interest of increasing cultural and economic awareness worldwide, the Alaska Foreign Language Association (AFLA) supports the expansion of all foreign language programs in the state. Of particular importance is expansion to include articulation of middle, junior high and elementary school programs with those in high schools. As such, AFLA agrees with the phrase in the proposal which states that the Asian language programs thus funded would supplement and not replace existing foreign language programs.
2. Schools and/or school districts with state-funded programs would use the money to hire qualified, certified teachers directly under the school and/or district hiring policy, whether or not this involves a statewide or out-of-state search. AFLA's intent is to ensure that the best possible teachers are hired to give the programs their best possible chance of success.
3. Members of AFLA are willing and able to provide input, suggestions and constructive criticism of the plan as it develops. Specific recommendations will include key schools and age groups to be targeted, and goals and objectives of the program.

AFLA appreciates the interest shown by you and the HESS Committee in developing foreign language programs in the state, and the presence of Mike Travis from DOE at the AFLA state conference. We look forward to being part of this exciting proposal to expand Asian language programs in the state.

Sincerely,

Doug Bruce

Respond

Dear Representative Ellis:

I commend you for proposing an Asian Language Study Grant fund of $1,000,000 with the Department of Education. The bill acknowledges the fact that Alaska cannot hope to develop close commercial and cultural ties with North Pacific Rim countries without preparing the citizens for this new opening. Our immediate competitors -- I think of California, Oregon and Washington -- are also trying to provide special educational opportunities to their students. In fact, they seem to be, in a number of areas, ahead of us.

*Chris
Leah?

I would like to stress in this context that any effort to develop foreign language programs, especially the ones focused upon in your legislation, requires CONTINUITY: continuity in funding on the part of the Legislature and the Department of Education; continuity in offering a given language over time and on several levels, on the part of the school districts involved.

Learning another language, in particular these Asian languages, takes a lot of time and commitment. Preparing Alaskans, and keeping them prepared, for closer ties with Asia must be a long-term, an on-going thing -- just as we hope to do business with these nations on a long-term, on-going basis. Alaska will reap the benefits of the proposed legislation not in two or three, but rather in ten or twenty years, if the effort can be kept up.

Can funding continuity be built into the initial bill creating the fund? Have you considered an endowment whose interest would pay for grants to schools? Tied in with a sliding scale and perhaps with matching funds (from districts, Alaskan business and federal sources), an endowment of 5 - 10 million could make possible at least learning over a ten year span. On the other hand, is an endowment of that magnitude realistically feasible?.....

Another crucial point are undoubtedly the eligibility criteria and other details. If I oppose these will be worked out by the DOE staff, once the funding has been established.

Once again, I deeply appreciate your initiative. Please do not hesitate to call if you have questions or if you think I might be of help in any way.

Sincerely,
[Signature]
