GOVERNOR HICKEL'S
BILL TO PROTECT VICTIMS OF RAPE,
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, AND CHILD ABUSE
(SB 351 & HB 525)

In far too many cases of rape, domestic violence, and child sexual abuse, Alaska's victims are often themselves "put on trial" in the course of criminal proceedings. The emotional trauma which such crime victims routinely suffer in the criminal justice system can in some cases be nearly as traumatic as the crime itself.

This legislation seeks to help solve these problems in several ways. First, it levels the playing field by amending the rules of evidence so that victims can't be "put on trial" by the accused rapist.

Defendants in rape cases used to claim that the rape simply didn't happen--that no sexual contact took place. Thankfully, today, scientific advances in both the gathering and analysis of forensic evidence such as human hair, blood, semen, skin scrapings and DNA have often made it much more difficult for accused rapists to use the "we never had sex" defense. The new defense is--while perhaps conceding that sexual contact did take place--attempting to put the rape victim on trial by claiming that the woman "consented" to sex.

In cases such as this--when the rapist claims the defense of "consent"--the rules should permit the State to stand up for the victim, and to rebut this claim by introducing evidence of the defendant's prior rapes.

Similarly, in cases of domestic violence and other violent assaults--such as cases involving a self-defense claim in which the defendant places the victim's character in issue--a level playing field means that the State to stand up for the victim, and to rebut this claim by introducing evidence of the defendant's prior rapes.

This proposed legislation also deletes the unnecessary language in Rule 404 that has made it difficult to prosecute repeat child molesters. As it reads now, the Rule has been erroneously interpreted by some judges to indicate that the jury can learn that an accused molester has abused other children only if the court finds that it was part of a very specific "common scheme or plan." This bill would fix that problem by simply eliminating this confusing phrase.

SB 35/

March 9, 1994

*The Honorable Rick Halford
President of the Senate
Alaska State Legislature
State Capitol
Juneau, AK 99801-1182*

Dear Mr. President:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill that amends Alaska Rule of Evidence 404 in several respects to help protect the victims of crimes in this state.

In far too many cases of sexual assault, domestic violence, and child sexual abuse, Alaska's victims are often themselves "put on trial" in the course of criminal proceedings. The emotional trauma that such crime victims routinely suffer in the criminal justice system can in some cases be nearly as traumatic as the crime itself.

Therefore, in order to address these problems and to better protect Alaska's citizenry, especially women and children who are frequently the victims of these crimes, we have proposed three changes to Rule of Evidence 404 which are intended to accomplish the following three goals.

The first goal is to reduce the number of times a sexual assault victim is "put on trial" by authorizing the admission into evidence of other sexual assaults or attempted sexual assaults by the defendant if the defendant claims that the victim voluntarily "consented" to the sexual activity. When a defendant argues that the victim consented, the prosecution should be permitted to stand up for the victim and rebut this claim by introducing evidence to the jury that the defendant has sexually assaulted or attempted to sexually assault other victims in the past.

The second goal is to similarly protect Alaska's sexually abused children. Rule of Evidence 404(b) was intended to prevent sexual predators and other child abusers from manipulating juries by hiding their past crimes of this type. Unfortunately, a confusing and unnecessary phrase -- "to show a common scheme or plan" -- has been misinterpreted by several Alaska courts to exclude evidence meant to be allowed under the rule. This bill would fix that problem by simply eliminating this confusing phrase. Evidence of other sexual assaults or sexual abuse by the defendant toward the same or another child should be admissible if those acts are similar to the offense charged, whether or not the evidence demonstrates a "common scheme or plan." This bill also specifies a 10-year time period as being not too remote for the admissibility of evidence of prior similar sexual assaults or sexual abuse offenses committed by the defendant against children.

The third goal relates to evidence of past violence on the part of the defendant. In cases of domestic violence and other violent crimes, the defendant often claims that the victim was the initial aggressor. The defendant claims, in essence, that "the victim hit me first" and that therefore the victim "had it coming." Under the existing rule of evidence, the defendant is then permitted to introduce all sorts of evidence about the victim's past reputation for violence -- and hide the fact that the defendant's own past contains an even more violent record. This bill would fix the rule by permitting the prosecution to stand up for the victim, and to rebut these claims by introducing evidence of the defendant's own past violence.

A defendant who claims that the victim was the aggressor should not be able to hide behind Rule 404 to keep a jury from learning that the defendant has an even greater reputation for violence in the community. The most common "relevant character trait of the accused" contemplated in this proposed amendment to Rule of Evidence 404(a) is the accused's reputation for violence or aggression.

The changes proposed in this bill will help level the playing field for the state in its efforts to combat crime. I urge your favorable action on this bill.

Sincerely,

Walter J. Hickel
Governor

BILL NO. _____

ANALYSIS CONTINUATION:

This bill amends Alaska Rule of Evidence 404 in several important respects. First, the bill would help reduce the number of times a rape victim is "put on trial" by authorizing the admission into evidence of other sexual assaults by the defendant against the same or another person when the defendant relies on the defense of consent. A defendant who argues that the victim consented should not be able to hide behind Rule of Evidence 404(b) to keep the jury from learning that the defendant has assaulted other victims.

Second, with respect to sexual abuses or assaults against a minor, this bill removes from Rule of Evidence 404(b) confusing language – "to show a common scheme or plan" – that has been misinterpreted by several courts to exclude evidence meant to be allowed under the rule. The bill also specifies a 10-year time period as being not too remote for the admissibility of evidence of prior similar assaults or sexual abuse offenses committed by the defendant against minors.

Finally, this bill amends Rule of Evidence 404(a) to allow evidence of a defendant's reputation for aggression or violence when the defendant places the victim's character for violence in issue by claiming self-defense. A defendant who claims that the victim was the aggressor should not be able to hide behind Rule 404 to keep a jury from learning that the defendant has an even greater reputation for violence in the community.

Because the bill modifies the rules of evidence in a manner that will help level the playing field for state prosecutors and does not add to or otherwise increase our workload, there will not be a fiscal impact.

GOVERNOR HICKEL'S BILL TO ARREST STALKERS AND WIFE BEATERS

(SB 350 & HB 524)

As the new anti-stalking law has proved, it's simply not enough to put laws on the books that only allow police to come in and mop up after a woman has already been victimized. Protecting Alaska's women from stalkers and domestic violence means that police have to have the ability to act--to intervene--and to do so immediately.

Here's the problem: When an attacker is out on bail, the victim is often at risk. Tragically, inevitably, what often happens is this:

Despite the order by the Court that he have no contact with the victim, the defendant returns to the home of the wife or girlfriend he's accused of attacking. Often it is late at night. Often, both alcohol and anger are involved.

There's a knock or a shout or a broken window. Words are exchanged. Terrified, the abused woman desperately calls 911. The police race to respond. Sirens blare. But by the time they arrive, predictably, the defendant has fled the scene. And since the police didn't see him violate bail with their own eyes, they can only make an arrest if, in the middle of the night, they are able to reach a prosecutor and a judge to issue the appropriate warrant.

This can take hours. And in the meantime, an accused criminal, angry and often drunk, remains at large. And one frightened woman will have a terrifying night as she is told, once again, that there is little that the police can do.

That's not good enough. Alaska's police need the ability to act.

The Governor's proposal would permit police to promptly arrest accused stalkers and other offenders who return to confront their victims. The draft amendment to AS 12.25.030 would authorize the warrantless arrest of persons who have violated conditions of release in domestic violence and rape cases, to the same extent that warrantless arrests are already authorized under existing Alaska law for the initial commission of these same offenses.

Juneau, AK 99801-1182*

Dear Mr. President:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill that would allow peace officers to make warrantless arrests when they have reasonable cause to believe that a defendant is violating the conditions of release imposed by a court in certain types of cases, including stalking, assault, sexual assault, and domestic violence cases. The bill would allow peace officers to take immediate action to protect the public, rather than requiring that they contact a prosecutor and a judge before arresting the defendant.

For example, if a person accused of stalking, domestic violence, assault, or sexual assault confronts the victim while the person is released on bail, or violates another condition of release, peace officers are rarely able to protect the victim or the public in general by making an immediate arrest. Typically, the peace officer must first meet with a prosecutor, go into court to file a motion, and obtain a court order before they can act to put the defendant back in jail. Since a large percentage of these incidents occur late at night and often involve alcohol or drug use by the defendant, these situations are particularly dangerous for victims -- and challenging for peace officers, prosecutors, and judges.

The bill authorizes the warrantless arrest of defendants who have violated conditions of release imposed by the court for certain offenses to the same extent that warrantless arrests are already authorized under existing law for the initial commission of these same offenses. The bill would permit peace officers to promptly arrest accused stalkers and other offenders who confront their victims, or otherwise violate conditions of release, while on bail.

The Honorable Rick Halford

Protecting Alaskans from stalkers and domestic violence requires giving peace officers the tools to act -- to intervene -- and to do so immediately. I urge your favorable action on this bill.

Section 29. of the proposed legislation, impacts AIDEA, under AS 44.88.210, REPORTS AND PUBLICATIONS. The amendments under Sec.29 of the proposed legislation should not be included in a bill going to the Legislature for introduction. As the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority is a public corporation of the State of Alaska having outstanding and ongoing fiduciary responsibilities, the reporting requirements under AS 44.38.210, should remain as currently established. Specifically, because AIDEA is required under certain legal and financial contractual agreements such as bond covenants, and to other outside entities, such as bond rating agencies, to annually publish an audited financial statement, the Authority's statement of investments and other pertinent financial information, the proposed amendments to AS 44.38.210 are not recommended. Continuing to report on an annual basis would not provide for a fiscal impact.

ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)
 Only Section 1 of the bill amending AS 05.05.030(a) affects the State Athletic Commission by amending the reporting requirement of studying semi-professional and professional athletic programs of the State from annually to biennially in even-numbered years. This amendment does not change the annual performance report requirement under AS 08.01.070(10) which is used to document the commission's accomplishments, activities and needs; and therefore, the division is not concerned by this change. New funds are not required to implement this bill.

AS 47.55.010(c) requires the Department of Administration to prepare an annual report to the legislature about and events in the Pioneers' Homes. This report takes the form of a brief letter prepared by the Pioneers' Homes Advisory Board. The change to a bienni report will save some work and costs, amounting to less than $500 every other year.

Bill Analysis

This bill is the result of a study in which all agencies were requested to review reporting requirements with intent toward streamlining administration of state government.

All of the changes proposed in this bill are primarily designed as cost-savings measures. Several sections of the legislation pertain specifically to Department of Revenue.

AS 43.20.014(c) is amended to eliminate the Department's annual reporting requirements to the Legislative Budget and Audit Committee (LB&A) on education credits claimed by corporation net income taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

AS 43.65.018(c) is amended to eliminate annual reporting requirements by the Department to LB&A on education credits claimed by mining license taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

AS 43.75.018(c) is amended to eliminate annual reporting requirements by the Department to LB&A on education credits claimed by fisheries business taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

AS 43.05.010(5) repealed to eliminate annual reporting requirements to governor and legislature concerning the condition, operation and functioning of the department. This information is available in the Department's budget documents submitted to the legislature.

AS 43.55.019(c) is amended to eliminate annual reporting requirements by the Department to LB&A on education credits claimed by oil & gas production taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income & Excise Audit Division.

AS 43.50.360 is repealed to eliminate reporting requirements to the governor and the legislature by the Department concerning cigarette and tobacco taxes collected. This information is available in annual operations reports issued by Income & Excise Audit Division and in the Department's Revenue Sources publication.

Operating Costs

Savings as a result of eliminating annual reporting requirements will be redirected toward other projects. Savings will result through more efficient use of personnel formerly assigned to production of these reports.

SUBJECT: Housekeeping
Amendment:
Rehabilitation Benefits

*Amendment #1
adopted*

In follow-up to your inquiry, the Division of Workers' Compensation is very interested in the passage of our three housekeeping sections contained in SB ~~365~~ am (Sections 4, 5 & 6).
357

One other housekeeping measure just surfaced that would also benefit efficiency. This change would harmonize the Rehab Administrator's annual report with the annual reports submitted to the division by insurers and adjusters.

Our proposal would be to amend AS 23.30.041 (b) to read:

(b) The administrator shall

- (1) enforce regulations adopted by the board to implement this section,
- (2) recommend regulations for adoption by the board that establish performance and reporting criteria for rehabilitation specialists;
- (3) enforce the quality and effectiveness of reemployment benefits provided for under this section;
- (4) review on an annual basis the performance of rehabilitation specialists to determine continued eligibility for delivery of rehabilitation services;
- (5) submit to the department, on or before May 1 [January 1] of each year, a report of reemployment benefits provided under this section for the previous calendar [fiscal year]; the report must include a general section, sections related to each rehabilitation specialist employed under this section, and a statistical summary of all rehabilitation cases, including
 - (A) the estimated and actual cost of each active rehabilitation plan;
 - (B) the estimated and actual time of each rehabilitation plan;
 - (C) a status report on all individuals completing or terminating a reemployment benefits program including a return to work date;
 - (D) the cost of reemployment benefits;
- (6) maintain a list of rehabilitation specialists who meet the qualifications established under this section;

Nancy Slagle

May 5, 1994

- (7) promote awareness among physicians, adjusters, injured workers, employers, employees, attorneys, training providers, and rehabilitation specialists of the reemployment program established in this subsection.

Under AS 23.30.155 (m), insurers and adjusters have 60 days from the end of the calendar year, or until March 1, to file their annual reports. Our proposal would give the Rehab Administrator another 60 days, or until May 1, to utilize the information contained in the insurers/adjusters annual reports to complete the Rehab Administrator's annual report. The 60-day period would provide time for the Rehab Administrator to receive information from the many private rehabilitation specialists who evaluate and develop plans for injured Alaska workers. This information is also included in the Rehab Administrator's annual report.

Bill Analysis

This bill is the result of a study in which all agencies were requested to review reporting requirements with intent toward streamlining administration of state government. We support the concept of this bill.

All of the changes proposed in this bill are primarily designed as cost-savings measures. Sections 16, 17, 18, 19 and 34 of this bill specifically pertain to Department of Revenue.

Section 16 amends AS 43.20.014(c) to eliminate annual reporting requirements to the Legislative Budget and Audit Committee (LB&A) on education credits claimed by corporation net income taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

Section 17 amends AS 43.55.019(c) to eliminate annual reporting requirements to the LB&A on education credits claimed by oil and gas production taxpayers. This information will be available in annual reports issued by Oil and Gas Audit Division.

Section 18 amends AS 43.65.018(c) to eliminate annual reporting requirements to LB&A on education credits claimed by mining license taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

Section 19 amends AS 43.75.018(c) to eliminate annual reporting requirements to LB&A on education credits claimed by fisheries business taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

Section 34 repeals AS 43.05.010(5) to eliminate annual reporting requirements to the governor and legislature concerning the condition, operation and functioning of the department. This information is available in the Department's budget documents submitted to the legislature. This section also repeals AS 43.50.360 to eliminate annual reporting requirements to the legislature on cigarette and tobacco tax collections. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

Operating Costs

Savings as a result of eliminating annual reporting requirements will be redirected toward other projects. Savings will result through more efficient use of personnel formerly assigned to production of these reports.

Only Section 1 of the bill amending AS 05.05.030(a) affects the State Athletic Commission by amending the reporting requirement of studying semi-professional and professional athletic programs of the State from annually to biennially in even-numbered years. This amendment does not change the annual performance report requirement under AS 08.01.070(10) which is used to document the commission's accomplishments, activities and needs; and therefore, the division is not concerned by this change. New funds are not required to implement this bill.

Section 29. of the proposed legislation, impacts AIDEA, under AS 44.88.210, REPORTS AND PUBLICATIONS. The amendments under Sec.29 of the proposed legislation should not be included in a bill going to the Legislature for introduction. As the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority is a public corporation of the State of Alaska having outstanding and ongoing fiduciary responsibilities, the reporting requirements under AS 44.88.210, should remain as currently established. Specifically, because AIDEA is required under certain legal and financial contractual agreements such as bond covenants, and to other outside entities, such as bond rating agencies, to annually publish an audited financial statement, the Authority's statement of investments and other pertinent financial information, the proposed amendments to AS 44.88.210 are not recommended. Continuing to report on an annual basis would not provide for a fiscal impact.

AS 43.75.018(c) is amended to eliminate annual reporting requirements by the Department to LB&A on education credits claimed by fisheries business taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income and Excise Audit Division.

AS 43.05.010(5) repealed to eliminate annual reporting requirements to governor and legislature concerning the condition, operation and functioning of the department. This information is available in the Department's budget documents submitted to the legislature.

AS 43.55.019(c) is amended to eliminate annual reporting requirements by the Department to LB&A on education credits claimed by oil & gas production taxpayers. This information will be available in annual operations reports issued by Income & Excise Audit Division.

AS 43.50.360 is repealed to eliminate reporting requirements to the governor and the legislature by the Department concerning cigarette and tobacco taxes collected. This information is available in annual operations reports issued by Income & Excise Audit Division and in the Department's Revenue Sources publication.

Operating Costs

Sec. 14 repeals the annual reporting requirement by the Director of the Division of Personnel to the Legislature on nonpermenant and emergency hire practices in state government. Cost savings are small and will be reallocated to other backlogged work in the division.
