KNOWLES SIGNS $106 MILLION CAPITAL BUDGET
Budget Discipline Shown in "Back to Basics" Capital Plan

FAIRBANKS - With the University of Alaska - Fairbanks' Brooks Building as a backdrop, Governor Tony Knowles today signed House Bill 268, an omnibus spending bill that includes the fiscal 1996 capital budget, reappropriations, education funding and other matters.

The bill includes $106.2 million in new general fund spending on various capital projects around the state. Also included in the bill is $29.5 million for deferred maintenance for the University of Alaska system. Knowles chose the aging Brooks Building to sign the spending bill because it was there he announced his plans for taking care of the long ignored maintenance needs of the university system.

"Signing this bill here today fulfills a commitment I made in March," Knowles said. "I said then that it was a sad day when Alaska's premier educational and research institution is crumbling because of years of neglect. Well, we're taking the University and all Alaska in a new direction with a capital budget that sticks with the basics. This bill addresses Alaskans' basic needs - clean water, good schools, safe neighborhoods and job opportunities. At the same time, this budget is lean. It shows the discipline we need to meet the task of closing the fiscal gap."

Included in the capital budget are:

- * Funding for community water and sewer projects and the repair of bulk fuel systems,
- * road, port, airport and marine highway maintenance projects,
- * maintenance of schools and university buildings,
- * municipal matching grants for projects selected by local communities,
- * economic development projects, including forestry and mineral assessments, fisheries research and improvements for commercial and sport fishing.

* jail renovations and funding for a statewide criminal justice information system.

Noting that some legislative additions to the spending bill did not meet his standards, Knowles made some line item vetoes. Among the governor's vetoes:

* Elimination of $1 million for unspecified block grants. Despite the title, these grants were intended only for Kenai Peninsula communities. Given the broad wording in the bill, the state could not legally direct funds to the particular projects that were listed.

* Funding for completion of the UAA Machetanz Building was reduced from $1 million to $500,000. This will still allow the planned fall opening of classrooms and the day care facility. Funds for completion of a pedestrian bridge can be considered next year.

* One of the funding sources was eliminated for the Shepard Point Road. This project should only be undertaken after the Department of Transportation confirms that a deep water port at Shepard Point is economically feasible.

* Funding for Nome water/wastewater/solid waste projects was limited to the original request of $700,000. This will fund projects that were identified on the Department of Environmental Conservation's original ranking of needed sanitation projects, but not unranked projects totaling $1.15 million that were added on at the last minute.

* Funding for public school transportation was reduced by a nominal $10 and the words "and nonpublic" were stricken. The Legislature added the two words to allow for the funding of private school transportation, but did not provide any funds. This essentially amounts to an unfunded mandate.

* Five chapters included in the reappropriation of federal highway matching funds were vetoed. Because of changes in the Governor's original request, the state stood to lose more general funds than it would gain.

* An appropriation from the Southeast Energy Fund was reduced from $4 million to $2.65 million to reflect an agreement recently reached by the Four Dam Pool utilities and the Alaska Energy Authority.

Knowles also approved the appropriation of $8.65 million to upgrade elementary schools at Eielson and Elmendorf Air Force Bases and Fort Richardson. This will be matched by $15 million in federal funding. While these schools were not at the top of the Department of Education's priority list, the availability of matching funds presented an opportunity to reduce the long list of schools that need major renovations.

Attachment to the Governor's Transmittal of the FY96 Capital "Omnibus" Budget

June 30, 1995

Unspecified Block Grants Although this appropriation would appear from its title to be for any community, the legislative back-up materials show that the sponsor intended specific grants on the Kenai Peninsula. I appreciate the needs in these communities. However, I vetoed the appropriation because, given the broad wording in the bill, we could not legally direct funds to projects listed only in back-up materials. (Sec. 135, page 37, line 35)

UAA - Machetanz Building I have reduced the amount to what is necessary to open this uncompleted new classroom building on the Mat-Su campus. Neither the integrity of the facility nor the scheduled Fall 1995 opening will be compromised by reducing the funding from $1 million to $500,000. The classrooms and day care facility will be open. The university may request funds for completion of the pedestrian bridge when it determines its capital priorities for next year. (Sec. 135, page 61, line 4)

Reappropriations for Federal Highway Matching Funds I have partially vetoed this section which sought to repeal fourteen prior capital budget chapters and reappropriate up to $2.5 million to the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities (DOT) for general fund match to federal-aid highway projects. If the entire section were left intact, DOT would lose more general funds than it would gain. Accordingly, I vetoed five chapters. (Sec. 101)

Due to the way in which the legislature changed and split my request for $26.1 million in state matching funds, DOT may not be able to recover all available federal highway dollars within the current budget. The administration asked for legislative intent language to cover this situation. If additional state matching funds are needed to preclude the loss of the federal funds or delay of projects into FY97, the department will identify this for early funding consideration next January.

Southeast Energy Fund I am reducing the appropriation from the Southeast energy fund to the Ketchikan Public Utility to reflect an agreement reached recently by the Four Dam Pool utilities (including Ketchikan) and the Alaska Energy Authority. The agreement sets out a short-term solution to begin addressing major repair needs of the Tyee transmission line in Southeast Alaska and Terror Lake power project near Kodiak. The agreement calls for $4 million in repairs to be paid from the annual debt service payment owed by the utilities the state. The $2.56 million which I am leaving in the appropriation is the amount available from the Southeast energy fund after its pro rata share reduction for repairs of the existing utility line. (Sec. 14)

Shepard Point Road I have vetoed one of the items that comprises this appropriation because I believe that its approval will prevent the use of other money that is expressly provided for this project. The project should be undertaken only after the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities (DOT) confirms that the deep water port dock at Shepard Point is economically feasible and that funding sources other than state funds are available for its completion and future operations and maintenance costs. Prior to the expenditure of this appropriation, DOT should confirm the physical suitability of the site for a deep water port and the Department of Environmental Conservation should approve an oil spill response plan prepared by the City of Cordova that addresses the use of the road and dock for oil spill response purposes.. (Sec. 91)

Nome Water/Sewer Project Add-on The Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) has an established system of rating the state's massive needs for community sanitation projects. It has been strictly followed by the legislature for the past five years and has been consistently viewed as fair, above-board and objective. Projects are ranked on their merits and adherence to this list takes funding decisions out of the political arena. The Nome utilidor originally scored in the fundable portion of the list at $700,000.

In the last days of the session, $1.15 million was added to the Nome allocation without going through the established process. The communities of King Cove, Petersburg and Bristol Bay Borough had their allocations cut even though their rankings on the list were just as high. These communities have needs just as severe as Nome and they relied on the ranking system for fair and evenhanded appropriations. The city has several viable options for addressing the projects which were added. DEC is working closely with Nome to help resolve its problems without additional state funds for this year.

I am vetoing the excess over the DEC listed amount to protect the integrity of the water/sewer program and its ranking system. I consider the excess $1.15 million to be "on hold" for next year and will add this amount to what I would otherwise submit for the water/sewer matching grants program in next year's budget. (Sec. 135, page 59)

Private School Busing In my budget request to the legislature, I sought full funding for public school pupil transportation. I do not believe state funding for private schools is appropriate. (I see no reason to prohibit private school students from riding on public school routes on a space available basis, as long as there is no additional cost to the state.) I recognize that there has been funding for private school busing in the past and that a transition period would be helpful. In that light, I made it clear to legislators who wanted to fund private school busing that the amount in my budget did not provide for private school students and that any legislative effort to include them in the program must hold public schools harmless. I said we would accommodate private school transportation in this year's budget as part of a transition only if separate funding were provided. Without increasing the pupil transportation funds in my budget, the legislature added wording so that the public school amount would have to pay for both public and private school students. This essentially results in an unfunded mandate to local school districts in the amount of $400,000-500,000 for FY96 and the potential amount in future years of $4 to 6 million if private schools around the state join the program.

If the language in this bill remains, the Department of Education will be forced to pro-rate reimbursement to school districts across the state to pay for private school busing. This is not acceptable. The legislature's action leaves me no choice but to veto the private school portion of the appropriation. Since the amount in the bill will fully cover only the public school pupil transportation costs, I am deleting the words "and private" and reducing the amount by a nominal amount of $10 to meet the technical requirements for using my veto authority. The general fund source is also reduced by $10. (Sec. 104)

AOGCC Duplication of Effort The Department of Natural Resources already has responsibility for economic analysis of Prudhoe Bay recovery. To avoid duplication of effort and mixed jurisdiction for this critical activity, I am vetoing the legislature's change of purpose for an earlier appropriation of $100,000 which would allow AOGCC to do the same thing as DNR. (Sec. 97)

Permanent Fund Deposit I am approving an immediate deposit of $500,000,000 from the Permanent Fund Earnings Reserve Account into the principal of the Permanent Fund. This will increase the principal from $13.5 billion to $14 billion. While it is tempting to deposit the full billion dollars authorized in this bill, the more responsible measure is to deposit half.

The Earnings Reserve is currently managed by the Permanent Fund Board as if it were part of the principal. Since its inception not one penny of the Earnings Reserve has been used for any other purpose than a deposit into the corpus of the Permanent Fund. I have been urged by people around the state to make the full deposit, to veto the entire deposit and to make a partial deposit. There is clearly no public consensus about the most appropriate use of the reserve account at this point. Since we recently established a Long Range Fiscal Planning Commission to help chart the wisest course for the state's fiscal future, I believe we should wait long enough to hear the results of their work this fall. We need a full discussion with the legislature and the public about which use of the Earnings Reserve will benefit Alaska the most. We may well decide to deposit all of it in the Permanent Fund. But I have also been given suggestions that we consider using it to forward fund education, or as a reserve against the type of oil price crash that sent our economy reeling in 1986.

One half billion dollars will go into the Fund immediately. In the meantime, the rest of the money isn't going anywhere. It will remain in the Earnings Reserve Account and not be spent for other purposes. And whether it remains in the Reserve Account or goes into the Permanent Fund, the dividends paid to all Alaskans will be exactly the same. Our dividends are already based on income from both the principal of the Fund and the Earnings Reserve account. (Sec. 103)

High Speed Ferry This is a technical veto to correct a double appropriation. It has no effect on the project. (Sec. 94)

Municipal Matching Grant The municipal matching grant program was created to allow communities to establish their own priorities for state matching funds. It has clear rules about the types of projects that qualify under the program. The Municipality of Anchorage has asked me to veto a legislative change to their allocation ($16,809 for the UAA Consortium Library) because it is not a municipal project, was not on the municipality's priority list and does not have the required municipal matching funds. Under the rules of the program, these funds will remain available to Anchorage next year for allocation to projects which are specified on the municipality's priority list.

Notes on Two Appropriations Approved by the Governor

Base Schools I approved the appropriation of $8,650,000 to upgrade elementary schools at Eielson Air Force Base, Elmendorf Air Force Base and Fort Richardson. This funding will be matched by nearly $15,000,000 which has now been firmly committed by the federal Departments of Defense and Education. Once these schools have been reconstructed and upgraded to acceptable standards, title to them will be transferred to the local school districts. While these schools were not on the top of the state Department of Education's priority list for work in FY96, we have an opportunity this year to capture two federal dollars for each one we commit as a state. This is a first step towards reducing the long list of schools around the state that need to be reconstructed or have major renovations made in order to provide good, safe facilities needed to provide a quality education for our children. (Sec. 6)

Federal Highway Fund Authorizations There are five federal highway projects added by the Legislature which I have not vetoed even though they are not in the FY96 Statewide Transportation Improvement Plan (STIP) prepared by the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities. DOT is currently reviewing all transportation plans and will be proposing amendments to the STIP before the next legislative session.

Although these five federal projects have been left intact in the FY96 budget, I am not recommending they be automatically added to the STIP. All federal projects will be reviewed on their merits by the department and may or may not be added to the STIP. By not vetoing them now, I am merely giving notice to the requesting legislators that these five projects will be considered. The projects and amount of federal receipt authorizations are:

- Funny River Road/bridge for $1,210.0 (Sec 98)
- Seward Joint Industry Marine Facility for $6,000.0 (sec. 135, pg. 43, ln. 36)
- Parks Hwy - Glenn Hwy to Seward Meridian for $1,004.3. (sec. 135, pg. 44, ln. 33)
- Seward Meridian to Lucas Road Rehabilitation for $920.6 (sec. 135, pg. 44, ln. 36)
- Trunk Road Improvements for $460.). (sec. 135, pg. 45, ln. 4)
