What is a Learning Opportunity Grant for Supplemental Student Instruction?

A Learning Opportunity Grant for Supplemental Student Instruction, as envisioned in Senate Bill 198, is an unique educational activity to help students meet or exceed district standards in reading, writing, and mathematics. The innovative teaching strategy is designed and implemented by each local school district to supplement and increase student learning.

Who decides what is offered through the Learning Opportunity Grant?

Each local district will assess its own students to determine those students who are not meeting the district's reading, writing and math standards. Through local input from parents, teachers, school board members, and other interested community members, the school district will structure an instructional program that addresses the identified student weaknesses. A plan or intervention strategy will be developed based on the public input.

Who will benefit from this Supplemental Student Instruction?

Each school district through public deliberations will determine the exact targeted population for this supplemental student instruction grant. The current identified needs of all students in each district may be addressed through the Learning Opportunity Grant for Supplemental Student Instruction.

The evaluation report will indicate the various measurement tools, including student portfolios and test scores, used to assess the success of the program.
