TESTIMONY to the SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE
April 16, 2003

Thank you, Mr. Chairman and Committee Members.

My name is Paul Douglas and I am a Juneau resident. I am a parent of an adult son with multiple disabilities. I am a long-time advocate for persons with disabilities, and I am a voter. I appreciate this opportunity to address you today.

The Governor's proposed budget included a $619 M reduction to the state's Centers for Independent Living. This is a 42.7% reduction to Independent Living budgets, which literally (pardon the pun) disables the CILs from providing services to Alaska's disabled.

The Commissioner of the Department of Labor testified during House sub-committee meetings that Centers for Independent Living would have to find their own money. However, he failed to note that the State Independent Living Council Executive Director position has been eliminated—a key grant writing position that helped bring in over $2 million in federal grant revenues that flowed into the Division of Senior Services and other state departments in FY02. This position is federally funded, therefore the state saves no money through this action so I wonder what was the motivation for this action? It appears that the Commissioner does not understand nor relate to this component of responsibility in his department.

As a result, a great deal of effort was made by CIL consumers and others involved with independent living to explain the terrible impact of the proposed cuts.

Fortunately the House Finance committee understood this and found the way to restore most of the funds. I am here tonight to respectfully request that you too protect that funding and lend your support to disabled Alaskans.

Here are some facts that will help you:

--Through the support of the state's five CILs during FY02, 188 persons with disabilities were either diverted from institutional care or transitioned from institutions to independent living situations. At an average cost of $100,000 per person per year and with 85% of the institutional residents paid for by Medicaid, the annual cost avoided was $16 million. The state's matching Medicaid obligation would have been over $6 million. $6 million saved versus an Independent Living budget of $1.45 million. The math is compelling.

--Drastic cuts in IL funding will cause certain consumers to remain needlessly in nursing homes. For example, it costs $180 M per year to reside in a Juneau nursing home. Federal Medicaid will pay for 60% of this but the state is obligated to pay the remaining 40% or $72 M per year. With full funding of IL services many consumers can be aided to find viable independent living alternatives at little or no cost to the state. In other words, eliminating the budgeted funds just increases the costs to the state elsewhere.

The great state of Alaska is home to all of us—those who are able-bodied and those who are challenged. I urge you to thoughtfully address this during your budget deliberations.

Please support the House budget at the restored 583.M so that the Alaskan disabled, who are eager, willing and capable, can integrate into and work in their communities of choice. Otherwise, some of these folks will be forced into institutions that will be far more costly to the state and is not in the best interest of these individuals—or the state.

Thank you. I will be happy to answer your questions.
