conventional foundations. Use of the Canadian foundation system in our rural arctic communities has already resulted in a savings (projected to be in the millions of present and future dollars) of the retrofit costs traditionally spent to repair frost-heave damage to the supported structures.

It is felt that much has been gained by interfacing with our International counterparts in housing development who face the same conditions that are unique to the arctic. Much more will be gained with our active participation in the Circumpolar Partnership.

I am requesting that I be approved to attend the Circumpolar Housing Forum 2000 in Yellowknife, N.W.T., Canada. I would be representing the HUD Alaska Office and present the lessons learned from our facilitation of the Best Practice International Partnership development of the Stebbins Elderly Project. An additional travel appropriation of approximately $3,000 will be required to cover airfare, per diem, and conference fees.

Mr. Paul Johnson
Community Builder
US Department of Housing and Urban Development
University Plaza Building
949 East 36th Avenue, Suite 401
Anchorage, AK 99508-3399

Dear Mr. Johnson: Paul

Circumpolar Housing Forum 2000

Circumpolar Housing Forum 2000 is a conference dealing exclusively with arctic housing issues. The Forum is held every second year and is jointly sponsored by the governmental housing agencies in Alaska, the Yukon, and the Northwest Territories with additional support by federal housing agencies and the private sector. Forum 2000 is being held in Yellowknife, NWT with future conferences planned every second year on a rotational basis in each of the sponsoring jurisdictions.

Of particular interest is the issue of community development as it relates to local infrastructure. Each of the sponsoring jurisdictions shares common geography, climate and culture although the approaches to local development vary. One of the highlights of the conference is to examine best practices and learn from each other's experiences. Your experience in rural Alaska in developing partnerships to create special needs housing would be beneficial to the conference. There will be a large contingent of Alaskans and other Northerners from the new housing associations that are being created and I feel we have an excellent opportunity to share our experiences with them as they develop.

I would therefore like to extend a formal invitation to yourself and HUD to participate in the conference. We would be pleased if you could attend as a panel member to discuss best practices in rural Alaska as well as highlight what you feel needs to occur for positive development. If you have any questions or concerns please contact me. You can also log on to our conference website at <http://nwthc.gov.nt.ca>. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Ross K. Bowring
Conference Chairman
