SJR 7

Sponsor Statement

SJR 7 is intended to send an important message to the President and Congress. Alaska has an economy that depends on natural resource development including extraction and transportation. Any action that would deny access to the resources that are now under state or national sovereign jurisdiction will directly impact the long-term stability and economic well being of our state and nation.

SJR 7 purposely omits any position or opinion on global warming. The focus of this legislative message is to reinforce the necessity of access to natural resources in the northern latitudes. Any move toward global control over what is now United States sovereign territory is a threat not only to Alaska's economy but our nation's as well.

Memorandum of Request

To: Senator Lesil McGuire / Chair Senate Energy Committee

From: Senator Gene Therriault

Date: February 23, 2009

Re: Requesting a hearing for Senate Joint Resolution 7

As momentum builds within the new federal administration to set aside greater amounts of land and water in protected areas, the temptation to further restrict control over these important elements is escalating.

SJR 7 sends a clear message that as stewards of our state's sovereign resources we oppose any attempt to place them in a political body that is outside both the state and federal jurisdiction.

It is with these serious issues in mid that I respectfully request that SJR 7 be taken up in your committee.

Thank you.
