Resume

Position sought: Public member of the Certified Direct Entry Midwives Licensing Board

Relevant experience:

1992 & 1993 Lobbied the Alaska State legislature on behalf of the Direct Entry Midwives: researched and analyzed data re: the safety and economics of midwifery for the edification of lawmakers, testified at committee hearings, wrote letters, rallied supporters, negotiated with legislators and aids, hosted conferences and generally contributed my energy to facilitating the process of creating a licensing board for Alaska's midwives and procuring Medicaid funding.

1987 Gave birth to another healthy daughter at home in Juneau, under the care of Kaye Kanne, a direct entry midwife.

1983 Gave birth to my first daughter in the Jordan Creek Birth Center, Juneau, under the care of two certified nurse midwives. Prior to this, I had researched natural birth extensively and helped educate my husband on the subject.

1977-1979 Photographed home and hospital birth center births in the San Francisco Bay Area, which were attended by nurse midwives. Created a children's book on sibling attended childbirth.

1955-1961 As a child, while visiting my grandmother who was a public health nurse in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois, I accompanied her on pre- and post-natal visits to home birth families.

Related volunteer activities:

1993-1994 Served on the board of directors of the Discovery Foundation during a time of upheaval, financial crisis and reorganization: coordinated publicity for the annual fundraiser, netting $14,000, organized and tracked operations and personnel during executive vacancy, recorded, processed and distributed minutes of the meetings, interviewed and maintained liaison with key donors, researched and implemented a successful executive search process for the board, coordinated and hosted a reception for the new executive and assisted in her orientation and adjustment.

Other volunteer activities:

1995 Community mentor for students at Dzantik'i Heeni Middle School.

1993-1994 Developed and coordinated the Harborview Earth Club. Produced a video with students on a trip to the landfill and the implications for our lifestyles.

1992-1993 Created and performed "Greta Garbage", a character who helps students reduce the solid waste in their lunch rooms.

1992-present Member of the League of Women Voters and an annual volunteer for community polling.

1976-1979 Member of San Francisco Women Entrepreneurs: coordinated workshops and seminars on areas of general business interest such as Time Management and Financial Planning.

Education and employment:

1965 Graduated with honors from Saratoga High School, Saratoga, California. Excelled in language arts and science.

1965-66 Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

1966-67 Independent living and employment as a chairside dental assistant/receptionist.

1967-70 BA in Humanities from University of California at Berkeley: course work included history, literature, the arts, philosophy, psychology, science and statistics. Extra curricular activities included a serious study of documentary and art photography.

1970-73 Post-graduate studies in photography, advertising and advertising production. Worked as a free-lance photographer and created three studios with darkrooms.

1973-74 Instructor, Academy of Art College, San Francisco.

1975-77 Staff photographer for Macy's California, San Francisco.

1977-81 Owner of a 4,000 sq. ft. studio advertising photography business specializing in large format table-top still life of food, wine, computers, jewelry and banking. My day rate was $1250.00/day. All work was project based and required the management and coordination of a full time and contract staff of assistants and stylists. My tasks ranged from being an art director and interpreting a client's needs, to a technician who followed an exacting and detailed layout designed by an ad agency. My work involved negotiation, a cooperative team approach, management skills, problem solving and communications.

1981-present Owner of a part-time photo photography business in Juneau specializing in interactive portraiture of families and children, Alaskan seafood products and political advertising (I created images for the Knowles-Ulmer campaign reflecting their involvement in the native community).

Personal information:

I have been a registered Democrat since I came to live in Juneau in 1981 when I married Avrum Gross. My current occupations include raising our two daughters, maintaining our two homes and working as a community volunteer. My interests include: women's issues, especially health and nutrition., organic gardening, vegetarian cooking, hiking, natural history, environmental issues and education. I have taken the hospice training and am conversant with issues related to death and dying.

Re: Letter of Intention
FACSIMILE TO (907) 465-3532

Dear Cindy:

Per your suggestion, I now submit this letter as an indication of my interest in serving on either the Governor's Advisory of Alcohol and Drug Abuse or on Mental Health.

As I know you are aware, I a practicing attorney and have extensive background working with the State of Alaska's DHSS. From 1973 until 1982, I worked for the Office of Alcohol and Drug Abuse. From 1976 until 1980 I served as the Coordinator for the South Central Office. Subsequent to that I attended Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and earned a master's degree in public policy. I then returned to Juneau and served as a special assistant to the Commissioner of DHSS. I believe this experience has amply prepared me for a position on either Advisory Board and am hopeful that you will give this application serious consideration.

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to call me. I shall await your reply. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Gail C. Shortell

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY OF
Dorothy Bradshaw

Dorothy Bradshaw, EA, MA, Accredited Tax Advisor, is the owner/manager of Alaska Accounting, (formerly Bradshaw Accounting and Tax Service) specializing in tax planning and preparation, estate and retirement planning, and other accounting services. The firm was established in 1987 and is currently located in Fairbanks, Alaska. Dorothy grew up in Pittsburgh, PA and graduated from Bellefield High School. She currently lives in Fairbanks, Alaska, with her husband.

Dorothy received her BA in accounting from Chaminade University in Honolulu, HI. She later earned her MA in management and supervision from Central Michigan University (Honolulu campus).

Following graduation she continued to work for the I.R.S. as a revenue agent. Her responsibilities included auditing income tax returns for individuals, partnerships and corporations. Upon retirement from the IRS, Dorothy formed her own accounting and investment business. Additionally, she has served as a part-time instructor in accounting at the Tanana Valley Campus of the University of Alaska, Fairbanks.

Dorothy has an extensive background dealing with those income tax problems concerning audit and collection situations with governmental agencies. Additionally, she has experience in the preparation of income tax returns of a complicated nature. She is currently increasing her practice to include additional estate and retirement planning services.

Dorothy's experience allows her to share with you the effective strategies that have worked for others in the planning and preparation of their taxes and designing their financial and estate plans to preserve their wealth.
