It is understood that the above wage schedules include the equivalent of one (1) step above the applicable salary table and that an employee's normally assigned step shall not be moved forward due to the pay adjustment nor their merit or longevity date changed.

These salary schedules shall be adjusted pursuant to Section 21.02.

26.02 Forty (40) Hour Schedule.

- A. The workweek for employees assigned to a forty (40) hour schedule shall consist of forty (40) hours in pay status within a maximum of seven (7) days allowing for two (2) consecutive days off, and all such employees shall be guaranteed a full workweek. The furlough provisions of 2 AAC 07.407 shall not apply.
- B. Work performed by overtime eligible employees in excess of forty (40) hours of work in a workweek is overtime and shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) times the applicable regular or shift rate of pay. Overtime pay or other premium pay shall not be pyramided or duplicated. Hours paid at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) the appropriate rate of pay for any reason shall be credited only once in the calculation of hours in the workweek.

26.03 Eighty-four (84) Hour Schedule.

- A. The workweek for employees on the twelve (12) hour schedule shall be a fourteen (14) day work period consisting of eighty-four (84) hours in pay status within a maximum of seven (7) working days and seven (7) consecutive days off, and all employees shall be guaranteed a full workweek. The furlough provisions of 2 AAC 07.407 shall not apply.
- B. Employees working a twelve (12) hour shift shall receive a one-half hour (1/2) duty-free paid meal period as well as two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid relief breaks. Every effort shall be made to provide a meal break midway through the shift not earlier than three (3) hours after the start of the shift and not later than three (3) hours prior to the end of the shift. Meal breaks which are not given shall be reported before the end of each shift. If the employee does not report the missed meal break, it will be assumed the break was taken. Missed meal breaks will be treated as time worked and will be paid at the applicable rate.
- C. There shall be two (2) shifts; day and night. Night shift shall receive the swing shift differential set out at Section 21.04.
- D. Work performed by overtime eligible employees in excess of eighty-four (84) hours of work in the work period is overtime and shall be paid at one and one-half (1.5) times the appropriate regular or shift rate of pay. Overtime pay or other premium pay shall not be pyramided or duplicated. Hours paid at the rate of one and one-half the appropriate rate of pay for any reason shall be credited only once in the calculation of hours in the workweek.

- E. Overtime pay for hours worked on a holiday shall be computed only on the hours worked between 12:01 a.m. and the following 11:59 p.m. on the holiday. This overtime compensation will be paid in addition to the eight (8) hours at the straight-time rate for holiday pay and is subject to paragraph D above.
- F. If a holiday falls on the employee's regularly scheduled day off, the employee shall receive payment for the holiday for eight (8) hours at the straight-time rate provided the employee was in pay status for a portion of the last regularly scheduled workday prior to the holiday and in pay status for a portion of the next regularly scheduled workday after the holiday. Such holiday pay does not count for the purpose of computing overtime nor for the purpose of fulfilling the work period unless worked as provided in paragraph E above.
- G. Every effort will be made to include adjustment(s) for holiday pay in the pay warrant issued for the appropriate pay period. If not possible, the adjustment(s) for holiday pay may appear on the next regularly issued pay warrant for the pay period following the pay period in which the holiday(s) occurred. Penalty pay shall not apply for pay shortages which result from holiday pay adjustments.

26.04 Personal Leave. It is agreed that personal leave shall be earned and used in lieu of sick and annual leave for employees covered by this article.

- A. Accrual of personal leave for full-time employees is according to the following schedule:

Years of Service	Hours/Pay Period
0 - 2	8
2 - 5	9
5 - 10	10
10 +	12

Personal leave accruals for partial periods of service will be on a prorated basis. Employees who work less than full-time shall accrue personal leave on a prorated basis according to the above schedule and the hours in pay status. There shall be no accrual of personal leave during any pay period during which the employee is absent without approved leave.

Accrued personal leave is available for use after an employee has completed thirty (30) continuous calendar days of employment. Employees shall use accrued personal leave on an hour for hour basis.

- B. An employee who has accrued annual leave shall have that annual leave transferred to the employee's personal leave account.
- C. An employee who has accrued sick leave shall have sixty percent (60%) of that sick leave transferred to the employee's personal leave account. The remaining portion of accrued sick leave shall be canceled without pay.
- D. The use of leave under this section shall be reduced by the amount of wage continuation payments under the Alaska Worker's Compensation Act (AS 23.30).
- E. Each employee shall take at least eighty (80) hours of personal leave each leave year.
- F. Each employee may cash in up to eighty (80) hours of personal leave each leave year. Up to forty (40) hours may be applied against the mandatory leave usage of E.
