

LDIR#247

WORKERS

COMPEN-

SATION

TRANSCRIPTS

ALASKA LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

BEFORE THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL of the

TERRITORY OF ALASKA

Note
8-56 in 1958
something
2
King, Cludat
J. D. V.

In the Matter of The )
WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ) STUDY )

MEMORANDUM:
ON BEHALF OF ALASKA
SURPLUS LINES BROKERS

Pursuant to the invitation of the Legislative Council of the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska, with respect to the study of Workmen's Compensation legislation now being made by the Council, this memorandum is submitted on behalf of each, respectively, of the following surplus lines brokers duly licensed as such by the Territory of Alaska:

- |                               |                            |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Farwest General Agency ✓      | Sayre & Toso, Inc.         |
| Robert O. Fleming & Co., Inc. | C. V. Starr & Co.          |
| Gould & Gould, Inc.           | Swett & Crawford           |
| Hansen & Rowland, Inc.        | Talbott Carroll Co.        |
| Rathbone, King & Seeley       | Voight, Walker & Co., Inc. |

Each of the above brokers maintains an office at Seattle, Washington, and some of them have offices in the Territory of Alaska as well as in other cities of the United States.

THE SURPLUS LINES MARKET AND WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Role and Scope of Surplus Lines Insurance in Alaska's Workmen's Compensation. Through the licensed surplus lines broker the world's

FILE COPY

ALASKA LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

TERRITORY OF ALASKA
LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

Workmen's Compensation - Prepared
Statements of witnesses at Hearing
January, 1958, Ketchikan, Alaska

FILE COPY NO. 3