

CHAPTER 7.

(S. B. NO. 6.)

AN ACT to establish the number of hours to constitute a day's work on all Territorial and municipal construction or such work done by contract or sub-contract, and providing penalties for its violation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Eight hour day
on public work

Section 1. Hereafter, eight hours in any calendar day, shall constitute a day's work on any work done for the Territory or any municipality within the Territory, subject to the following conditions:

Sec. 2. All work done by contract or sub-contract on any building or improvements, or work on roads, bridges, streets, alleys or buildings for the Territory or any municipality within the Territory, shall be done under the provisions of this Act;—Provided, that in cases of extraordinary emergency such as danger to life or property, the hours for work may be extended. And for this purpose this Act is made a part of all contracts, sub-contracts or agreements for work done for the Territory or any municipality within the Territory.

Applies to sub-contracts

Sec. 3. Any contractor, sub-contractor, or agent of contractor or sub-contractor, foreman or employer, who shall violate the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or with imprisonment for a period of not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty

Approved, April 18, 1913.
