

punishment therefor, but such punishment shall not exceed in any case a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the municipal jail not exceeding ninety days, or both, in the discretion of the court, together with the costs of prosecution. All fines and costs imposed and collected for violation of municipal ordinances shall belong to the municipality and be paid over to its treasurer. The municipal magistrate shall have jurisdiction of all actions for violations of municipal ordinances, and appeals shall lie from his judgments to the commissioner for the precinct in which such city of the second class is situate, in the same manner as appeals from the judgments of the ex-officio justices of the peace to the district court.

Ninth. To make due provision for the maintenance of a municipal jail and to provide the same with a keeper.

Tenth: To take such action by ordinance, resolution, or otherwise, as may be necessary to protect and preserve the lives, the health, the safety, and the well-being of the people of the town, and to publish all ordinances.

Eleventh: All assessments made by the assessor of the corporation of the second class shall be subject to review by the Trustees; but no bonded indebtedness shall be authorized for any purpose.

Approved, April 23, 1915.
