

CHAPTER 36.

AN ACT

[H. B. 69.]

Providing for the inspection of food and to prevent the re-service of food.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person in the Territory of Alaska to serve to any other person for pay any article of food or drink or any portion thereof which has theretofore been served to any person; and any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 2. That in all villages and towns, incorporated or otherwise, in the Territory of Alaska, all restaurants, lunch counters, hotels, bake shops, meat markets, fish markets, and all other places where food is served or sold, shall be inspected by a food inspector, to be appointed by the constituted authorities of such town or village, who shall have the power to condemn all articles of food and drink, whether prepared or otherwise, found by such inspector to be impure, dangerous to health, or otherwise unfit for food purposes; and any person who shall, after such articles shall have been so condemned, sell or serve to any person any of such condemned articles, for food purposes or without disclosing such condemnation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Approved, April 28, 1915.
