CHAPTER 16.

AN ACT

(S. B. 5)

To amend Chapter 32, of Alaska Session Laws for the year 1913, entitled 'An Act to establish juvenile courts, to provide for the care of dependent children, to create Children's Guardians in Alaska, and for other purposes,' by amending Section 2, and Section 6, and by adding a new section, to be numbered Section 10.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 2, Chapter 32, of Alaska Session Laws for the year 1913, entitled "An Act to establish Juvenile Courts, to provide for the care of dependent children, to create children's guardians in Alaska, and for other purposes be amended to read as follows:

"Section 2. Said Juvenile Judges shall have power to commit to a reform school, to an orphan asylum, to any other public or charitable institution, or to the Board of Children's Guardians for the Judicial Division in which such Juvenile Judge shall be located, as hereinafter provided for, any child under seventeen years of age for an indeterminate period of not exceeding the time such child shall have arrived at the age of twenty-one years.

(a) All children who are destitute of suitable homes and adequate means of earning an honest living;

(b) All children abandoned by their parents or guardians;

(c) All children living with or in the care of habitually drunken, vicious or unfit persons;

- (d) All children kept in vicious or immoral associations;
- (e) All children habitually begging or receiving alms;
- (f) All children known by their language or life to be vicious or incorrigible”.

Section 2. That Section 6 of said Act be amended to read as follows:

“Section 6. That the said Board of Children’s Guardians shall be the legal guardians of all children committed by the juvenile courts as hereinbefore provided, and shall have full power to board them in private families, or in institutions willing to receive them; to bind them out or apprentice them; or to give them in adoption to foster parents.

Board of children’s guardians to be legal guardians.

Whenever a white child is brought before a juvenile court and it appears upon the examination that the mother thereof is a widow, or that her husband is either divorced, an inmate of some penitentiary or insane asylum, or crippled to such an extent as to be unable to work for a living, and it further appears that the mother has no other means of supporting the child except by her earnings and is unable to properly support such child, and that she is a fit and proper person to have the custody of such child, the judge of said court shall report the facts of the case to the Board of Children’s Guardians, who shall proceed to further examine into the matter, and shall have the power and authority to award to the mother of such child a monthly allowance of not more than fifteen dollars ($15.00) for a single child and ten dollars ($10.00) additional for each additional child, which shall be paid by the Treasurer of Alaska out of the funds appropriated for the care of dependent children on warrants drawn by the board of Children’s Guardians and approved by the Governor.

"Section 10. The judge of the juvenile court shall, at the conclusion of each case tried under this act, transmit to the Secretary of the Board of Children's Guardians for the Division in which his precinct is situate, a complete report of the case, together with a certified copy of the judgment. Such report must be made whether the child be committed or not; and for making each report the Judge of the Juvenile Court shall receive a fee of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50). A voucher for the said one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50), properly signed by the judge shall accompany the reports sent to the Secretary of the Board of Children's Guardians. The said Secretary shall forthwith transmit said voucher to the Governor of the Territory at Juneau, and it shall be paid out of the Fund for dependent children as other vouchers against said fund are paid. The Secretary of the Board shall transmit the certified copy of said judgment to the Governor of Alaska, with the report required to be made in Section 7, of this Act."
