CHAPTER 57.

AN ACT

(H. B. 52)

Authorizing and empowering the Governor to audit, adjust and allow expenses incurred by the citizens of Nome, in dispatching an expedition for the rescue and relief of passengers and crew of the schooner "White Bear."

Preamble

Whereas, on the 29th day of October, 1917, it was reported to the citizens of Nome, Alaska, that the schooner "White Bear," carrying mail and passengers, was long overdue and in imminent danger of being blown to sea in the storm then raging and her crew and passengers lost; and

Whereas, an expedition for relief and rescue of the passengers and crew was immediately organized, vessel commandeered, and the same dispatched on the the search of said vessel, crew and passengers; and

Whereas, expenses were incurred in carrying out such expedition, and application made for the payment of the same under the provisions of Chapter 31, Laws of 1917, to the Governor of Alaska, but was disallowed for the sole reason that no application had been made to the United States Commissioner for the allowance of such expedition, as required by said Chapter.

Now therefor,

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That the Governor of the Territory be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered to audit the several items of expense incurred for and on account of said relief and rescue expedition, and allow to the several parties whom he shall find entitled to reimbursement, such sum or sums as they in his judgment may be justly entitled from the fund set aside for the rescue and relief of lost persons, under Chapter 31, Session Laws of 1917, and the Treasurer is hereby authorized to pay such persons the sum or sums which may be designated by the Governor, as entitled thereto from said relief fund, Provided, no allowance shall be made for the charter or hire of the tug "Genevieve."
