

Qualifications and duties.

Section 3. The Mine Inspector provided for by this Act shall have and possess all the qualifications and be vested with all the duties and authority prescribed in Chapter 51 of the Session Laws of 1917.

Emergency.

Section 4. An emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Approved May 7, 1921.

CHAPTER 45.

AN ACT

[S. B. 71]

To provide for the filing of claims of the Territory of Alaska against the estates of Pioneers and providing for the disposal of property left by deceased Pioneers who have been inmates of the Pioneers' Home or have received allowances under the Laws of the Territory, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Governor to file claim of Territory against estates.

Section 1. Whenever any aged resident or Pioneer of Alaska who has received or may hereafter receive an allowance from the Territory, or whenever any person who has been or may hereafter be an inmate of the Pioneers' Home at Sitka, Alaska, shall die, leaving property but no widow or minor child under eighteen years of age, and the Territory of Alaska shall have a claim against the estate of the deceased pursuant to the provisions of the Laws of the Territory, and letters testamentary or of administration shall issue for the settlement of the estate of such deceased Pioneer, it shall be the duty of the Governor to file with the executor or administrator the claim of the Territory against such estate and the Attorney General shall prosecute the same. In the event no administration of such estate is applied for within forty days after the death of such Pioneer, the Governor or his accredited representative may reduce such property to money, by sale or otherwise, and cover such money into the treasury of the Territory of Alaska; PROVIDED, however, that at any time within six months after the death of such Pioneer any creditor or heir of such deceased may apply for administration of said estate, and in that event the Treasurer of the Territory shall deliver to the administrator of such estate, all the surplus of the funds from said estate covered into the treasury of the Territory over and above the claim of the Territory and the costs of reducing said estate to money.

To reduce property to money, when.

Proviso.

Section 2. This act shall apply as well to property which has been left by such Pioneers who have heretofore died, and who at the time of their demise were inmates of said Pioneers' Home at Sitka, or who received allowance from the Territory pursuant to law.

Provisions apply to Pioneers at Home and those receiving allowances.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

Approved May 7, 1921.

CHAPTER 46.

AN ACT

[H. B. 42]

To make appropriations for the expenses of the Territory of Alaska, for the last three-quarters of the fiscal year, 1921, beginning April 1, and ending December 31, for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1922, and for the quarter ending March 31, 1923, and for the school year ending June 30, 1923, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. The following sums, or so much thereof as shall severally be found necessary, are hereby ap-