

tence, can be estimated or counted as a part of the term for which such person was sentenced.”

Approved April 6, 1923.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT

[S. B. 37]

To provide for proof of service of notices and demands.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Proof of service
of notice, how established.

Section 1. Whenever notice in writing either by personal service or by publication shall have been given one co-owner by another co-owner in a mining claim, pursuant to section 2324, Revised Statutes of the United States, to contribute to the annual labor on such mining claim, as well as in all other cases where the laws of the Territory of Alaska require or authorize a notice or demand to be served, posted or published, and where the same affects title to real property, an affidavit of the service of such notice, or of the posting or publication of the same, may be filed for record and recorded in the office of the recorder of the precinct in which the claim or other real property affected by such notice is located, and when so filed for record within eight months after such service, posting or publication, such affidavit as well as the records thereof shall be competent prima facie evidence of the facts in such affidavit set out.

Proof of service
by affidavit evidence in court.

Section 2. Whenever any notice is required by law to be served, mailed, posted or published relative to any proceeding pending in any court of the Territory, an affidavit of such service, posting or publication may be filed in the court where such proceeding is pending and when so filed shall be prima facie evidence of the facts in such affidavit set out, provided such affidavit be so filed within 60 days after such service, mailing, posting or publication.

In all other cases where notice is required by law to be served, mailed, posted or published, an affidavit of such services, mailing, posting or publication shall be competent and prima facie evidence thereof in any court when such affidavit is made within sixty days after such service, mailing, posting or publication and where the affiant has since died or gone beyond the jurisdiction of the court.

Approved April 6, 1923.

CHAPTER 24.

AN ACT

[S. B. 47]

To denounce false pretense in soliciting money for associations or organizations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Any person who shall, either by oral or written words, or by acts or conduct, falsely represent or pretend to be a member or authorized agent or representative of any religious, or fraternal, or beneficial, or charitable society, or association, or organization of any kind, and shall, in addition, while engaged in making, or by means of any false representation or pretense, obtain from any person, money or written promise to pay money or any other property or valuable thing whatever, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. It shall be a false representation, or pretense, within the meaning of this act, for a person falsely to represent or pretend to be a member or agent or representative of any religious,

False solicitation of money for association, etc.

How punished.

Definition.