

CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT

[S. B. 65]

To amend Section Thirteen Hundred and Four (1304) of the Compiled Laws of Alaska 1913, relative to the provisions of the judgment of the court declaring void or dissolving a marriage.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1304 of the Compiled Laws of the Territory of Alaska 1913, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

“Section 1304. Whenever a marriage shall be declared void or dissolved the court shall have power to further decree as follows:

For care and custody of minor children.

“First. For the future care and custody of the minor children of the marriage as it may deem just and proper, having due regard to the age and sex of such children, and unless otherwise manifestly improper giving the preference to the party not in fault;

For maintenance of children.

“Second. For the recovery of the party in fault, and not allowed the care and custody of such children, such an amount of money, in gross or installments, as may be just and proper for such party to contribute toward the nurture and education thereof;

For maintenance of party not in fault.

“Third. For the recovery of the party in fault such an amount of money, in gross or in installments, as may be just and proper for such party to contribute to the maintenance of the other;

Delivery of personal property to wife.

“Fourth. For the delivery to the wife, when she is not the party in fault, of her personal property in the possession or control of the husband at the time of giving the judgment;

For appointment of trustee.

“Fifth. For the appointment of one or more trustees to collect, receive, expend, manage, or invest, in such manner as the court shall direct, any sum of money adjudged for the maintenance of the wife or the nurture and education of minor children committed to her care and custody;

“Sixth. For the division between the parties of their joint property, or the separate property of each, in such manner as may be just, and without regard as to which of the parties is the owner of such property; and to accomplish this end the judgment may require one of the parties to assign, deliver or convey any of his or her real or personal property to the other party; and the provisions of Section 1213 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska 1913 shall apply to any such judgment.

For division of property.

“Seventh. To change the name of the wife when she is not the party in fault.”

For change of name of wife.

Approved April 11, 1923.
