

CHAPTER 37.

AN ACT

[S. B. 35]

To prohibit and punish falsification of evidence.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Offering fraudulent evidence at any trial, etc., a felony.

Section 1. Every person who upon any trial, proceeding, inquiry or investigation whatever, authorized or permitted by law, offers in evidence as genuine or true, any book, paper, document, record or other instrument in writing, knowing the same to have been forged or fraudulently altered or antedated, is guilty of a felony.

Preparing any fraudulent evidence to be used at any trial, etc., a felony.

Section 2. Every person guilty of preparing any false or antedated book, paper, record, instrument in writing, or other matter or thing with intent to produce it or allow it to be produced for any fraudulent or deceitful purpose as genuine or true upon any trial, proceeding or inquiry whatever, authorized by law, is guilty of a felony.

Penalty.

Section 3. Violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years or by fine of not more than ten thousand dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Approved April 16, 1923.

CHAPTER 38.

AN ACT

[S. B. 36]

To amend Sections 1345, 1352 and 1360, Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1913, relative to the recovery of costs and disbursements in certain civil proceedings in court, and to make further provision concerning the same.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1345, Compiled Laws of Alaska, be amended so as to read as follows:
