

and the telegraphic copy of such writ or order or paper so transmitted may be served or executed by the officer or person to whom it is sent for that purpose, and returned by him, if any return be requisite, in the same manner and with the same effect and force in all respects as the original thereof might be if delivered to him; the officer or person serving or executing the same shall have the same authority and be subject to the same liabilities as if such copy were the original. The original when a writ or order shall also be filed in the court from which it was issued. In sending it, either the original or a certified copy may be used by the operator transmitting the same.

Transmission
by telegraph.

“(b) Whenever any document to be sent by telegraph bears a seal, it shall not be necessary for the operator in sending the same to telegraph a description of the seal, or any word or device thereon, but the same may be expressed in the telegraphic copy by the word ‘seal.’

Method of telegraphing seal.

“(c) The term ‘telegraphic copy’ shall be confined to mean any copy of a message made or prepared for delivery at the office to which said message may have been sent by telegraph or wireless.

Terms defined.

“(d) The term ‘telegraph’ shall include ‘wireless’ message.”

Approved April 28, 1923.

CHAPTER 58.

AN ACT

[H. B. 56]

To amend Section 1, Chapter 56 of the Session Laws of Alaska, 1917, entitled: “An Act relating to and regulating marriage and marriage license in the Territory of Alaska, and providing penalties for the violation of the same,” approved May 3, 1917.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1, Chapter 56 of the Session Laws of Alaska, entitled “An Act relating to and regulating marriage and marriage license in the Territory of Alaska, and providing penalties for the violation of the same," approved May 3, 1917 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Amendment.

"Section 1. No person shall be joined in marriage in this Territory until a license shall have been obtained for that purpose from a duly appointed and qualified United States Commissioner; provided that where there is no United States Commissioner within fifty miles, a notary public may be authorized by the District Court to administer the oaths, issue the marriage license, collect the specified fees in lieu of the United States Commissioner; Provided further that the District Court shall require said notary public to make immediate return of license issued and fees collected to the nearest United States Commissioner by personal delivery or by United States registered mail. Be is further provided that the penalty for failure of said notary public to make the returns as above specified and the manner of recovery of said penalty shall be the same as set forth in sections ten and eleven of this Act."

License for marriage required.

Notaries public may issue marriage license, when—

Fees.

Penalty.

Approved April 28, 1923.

CHAPTER 59.

AN ACT

[S. B. 52]

To amend Section 1923, Compiled Laws of Alaska, relating to the crime of larceny by stealing horses, etc.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1923 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1923: That if any person shall commit the crime of larceny by stealing any horse, gelding, mare, colt, mule, ass, jenny, bull, steer, cow, calf, or fox, such Larceny by stealing certain animals.