
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 10.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring that the report of majority and minority of the House and Senate joint committee on the question of transportation for biennium March 1, 1921 to March 1, 1923 be printed.

That under joint directions of the Finance Committee of the Senate and the printing and purchasing Committee of the House bids be called for the printing of 1000 copies of the majority and minority report of House and Senate Joint Committee on the question of transportation for the biennium March 1, 1921 to 1923, and that the award for such printing be to the lowest bidder provided that not less than 100 copies thereof be retained in the possession of the Secretary of the Territory for the use of the future Legislature. And the balance be used for immediate distribution by the members of the Senate and House.

Adopted by the Senate, April 28, 1923.

Concurred in by the House, April 28, 1923.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 11.

BE IT RESOLVED: By the Senate of the Alaska Legislative Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring, that all Alaska mourns the death of the Honorable Knute Nelson, former United States Senator from Minnesota, who during his entire public life was a staunch friend and a warm supporter of all measures that tended toward the development of Alaska; who had an intimate knowledge of Alaska and all matters pertaining to Alaska; and who ever felt and manifested a kindly and intelligent interest in the welfare of the Territory.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That in appreciation of the high regard entertained by the people of Alaska for the deceased Senator, this Legislature, at the hour of eleven o'clock A. M. on the 3rd day of May, 1923, the last day of the session, cease all business for the period of ten minutes in order to render a silent tribute to the memory of the dead.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That this resolution be spread upon the journal of the Senate and of the House, and that copies be forwarded to the President, to the Congress of the United States, and to the Delegate from Alaska.

Adopted by the Senate, May 2, 1923.

Adopted by the House May 2, 1923.
