CHAPTER 4.

AN ACT

[S. B. 1]

To amend Section 1484 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska of the year 1913, so as to provide for the taking of depositions in the Territory of Alaska upon written interrogatories.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1484 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska of the year 1913 be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1484. Either party may take the testimony of a witness in the district by deposition, in the cases allowed by this code, before the Clerk of a Court of record, or other person authorized to administer oaths, on giving the

Deposition in the District,
notice thereof.

adverse party previous notice of the time and place of the examination, the name of the officer, and the witness; such notice shall be given at least three days before the day of the examination, if the distance of the place of examination from the residence of the person to whom notice is given does not exceed twenty-five miles, and one day in addition for every additional twenty-five miles, unless the Court or Judge thereof by order prescribe a shorter time. When a shorter time is prescribed the order shall be served with the notice.

“Provided that when the residence of the witness is such that he is not obliged to attend the trial of a cause in obedience to a subpoena without a special order of the Court or Judge therefor, his deposition may be taken upon written interrogatories, and the commission may be issued by a Clerk of the District Court or by a Justice of the Peace in a cause in his own Court, in the same manner and upon the same notice as provided by Chapter 62 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the Compiled Laws of Alaska of the year 1913, for taking the deposition of a witness out of the Territory.”

Approved April 11, 1925.
