CHAPTER 63.

AN ACT

[S. B. 16]

To amend Chapter 98 of the Session Laws of Alaska, 1923, relating to the measure and recovery of compensation of injured employees in certain industries in the Territory of Alaska and the payment of compensation to designated beneficiaries, where such injuries result in death, by adding to said Act a section to be known as Section 1½ to provide for medical, surgical and hospital treatment for such injured employees.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Chapter 98 of the Session Laws of Alaska of the year 1923, the same being an Act entitled: "An Act relating to the measure and recovery of compensation of injured employees in all business, occupations, work, employments, and industries employing five or more employees in the Territory of Alaska, except domestic service, agriculture, dairying and the operation of railroads as common carriers, and relating to the compensation to designated beneficiaries where such injuries result in death, defining and regulating the liability of employers to their employees in connection with such business and industries and repealing all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act." be amended by inserting in said Act, after Section 1 and before Section 2 of said Act, a new section to be known as Section 1½ and reading as follows, to-wit:

Employer to furnish medical and hospital treatment when necessary for period of one year.

Fund how created.

Employer to enter into contracts with physicians and hospitals.

Section 11½. And in addition to the compensation for injured employees in this Act otherwise provided, the employer shall furnish to and for each injured employee such reasonably necessary medical, surgical and hospital treatment, including necessary transportation to and from hospitals, as may be required by reason of the injury, for a period not exceeding one year from and after the date of injury to any such employee; and the employer in order to create a fund out of which the expenses of such treatment may be paid, may charge against and deduct from the wages of each employee, as and when the same are paid, the sum of not to exceed Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) per month; the money so deducted and withheld by the employer shall be kept by him in a separate fund and used only to cover the services and treatment in this section provided, and if the fund so created be insufficient, such deficiency as may reasonably arise, shall be paid by the employer without any charge therefor against the injured employee or any other of the employees; and the employer shall have the exclusive right, and it shall be his duty to select and furnish the necessary physicians, surgeons and hospitals and to that end he may enter into all necessary contracts with such physicians, surgeons and hospitals for the furnishing of such services and treatments. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the right of the employee, to provide in any case, at his own expense, a consulting physician or any attending physicians whom he may desire. The fund hereby created by deductions herein allowed to be made by the employer from the wages of employees shall be and the same is hereby made a trust fund which can be used only for the purposes herein set out. Whenever any employer shall cease his business or operations and go out of the business in which such employer has been theretofore engaged, any part of the fund created by this section and remaining in the possession of such employer shall, by the employer, be paid to the Territorial Treasurer and by him covered into general Territorial funds.

Any remaining in fund to be covered into Territorial Treasury, when.

Approved April 30, 1925.

CHAPTER 64.

AN ACT

[H. B. 85]
