

or magistrate, whenever required, and shall at all times render himself amenable to the order or process of such Court, Judge or Magistrate, and that if he fail to perform either of those conditions the surety or sureties on such undertaking will pay to the United States the sum in which such person is so admitted to bail.

Effect of admitting to bail.

Section 2. The admitting to bail of a person so prosecuting a writ of habeas corpus shall not in any manner affect the writ or other proceedings, or the full right of such person to have the cause and legality of his imprisonment inquired into and determined both in the District Court and in the Appellate Court upon an appeal.

Return.

Section 3. In the event that any person suing out a writ of habeas corpus is admitted to bail, the defendant to the writ shall make return of that fact as well as of the other facts required by law to be stated in such return; and the cause shall thereupon proceed to final hearing in the same manner, so far as may be possible, as though the petitioner had not been so admitted to bail.

CHAPTER 65.

AN ACT

[H. B. 66]

To amend Sections 1, 4 and 8 of Chapter 46, of the Session Laws of Alaska, 1923, entitled, "An Act to provide allowances for certain aged residents of Alaska, and for other purposes, and repealing all Acts or parts of Acts in conflict herewith," approved April 21, 1923, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Chapter 46 of the Session Laws of Alaska, 1923, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. Any resident of Alaska who is a citizen of the United States and who has attained the age of sixty-five (65) years or, if a woman, the age of sixty (60) years, and who shall have resided in Alaska for fifteen (15) consecutive years or more immediately prior to making application for receiving the benefits of this Act and is entitled to the benefits of the Alaska Pioneers' Home, may, in lieu of an application to be received and cared for at such Home, make an application to the Board of Trustees of said Alaska Pioneers' Home in the manner prescribed in this Act for an allowance to be paid out of money appropriated by the Territorial Legislature for this purpose, and thereupon said Board shall investigate the case of such applicant, and if they find that his or her case is worthy and that he or she is in actual need of such allowance, the said Trustees shall enroll him or her as a beneficiary under this Act and issue a certificate accordingly, which shall not be transferable or descendible, and in conformity therewith an allowance shall be paid for his or her use, as provided in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act, out of the appropriation for allowances to aged pioneers; Provided, that if any person given an allowance under the provisions of this Act shall be admitted to the Alaska Pioneers' Home any allowance granted hereunder shall be suspended during the time such person shall be an inmate of the Home, and any inmate of the Home who is eligible to receive an allowance under the provisions of this Act may at any time make application for such allowance
