CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT

[H. B. 9]

To prohibit the malicious burning of lumber or vegetable products, providing a penalty therefor, repealing Section 1915 of the Compiled Laws, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That if any person shall willfully and maliciously burn any pile or parcel of boards or other lumber, timber, or wood; or any stack of hay, grain, or other vegetable product; or any hay, grain, or other vegetable product severed from the soil, but not stacked; or any growing grass or grain, or other growing vegetable product of the soil not his own, such person shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof, if the property burned shall exceed in value thirty-five dollars, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than ten years; but if the property burned shall not exceed the value of thirty-five dollars, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the Federal jail not less than one month nor more than one year, or by fine not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court. Penalty.

Repeal.

Section 2. Section 1915 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska are hereby repealed.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Approved April 28, 1927.

CHAPTER 24.

AN ACT

[H. B. 27]

To appropriate funds for the improvement of the Kenai school building, making provision for such improvements, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Appropriation for improving school building at Kenai.

Section 1. The sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any monies in the Treasury of the Territory of Alaska not otherwise appropriated, for the following improvements to the Kenai school building, to-wit:

(a) To meet the expenses of painting the exterior and interior of the said building, finishing the interior of one school room, and making other minor improvements to the building.

How expended.

Section 2. The sum by this Act appropriated shall be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Education, and shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Territory of Alaska upon warrants drawn upon the Treasurer by said Commissioner of Education, specifying the purpose for which such warrants are drawn.

Section 3. The Commissioner of Education is hereby authorized to cause such improvements to be made.
