CHAPTER 12.

AN ACT

[S. B. 21]

Defining the authority of the United States Marshal when property levied upon or taken by him by virtue of a writ of execution, attachment, or other process is claimed by any other person than the defendant.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. If any property levied upon or taken by the marshal by virtue of a writ of execution, attachment, or other process, is claimed by any other person than the defendant, and such person, his agent or attorney, makes affidavit of his title thereto, or right to the possession thereof and the ground of such title or right, stating the value thereof, the marshal shall release such levy or taking, unless the plaintiff, on demand, indemnify the marshal against such claim by bond executed by two sufficient sureties who shall justify in double the value of said property and otherwise as in case of attachment bonds; and notwithstanding such claim, when so made, the marshal may retain such property under levy a reasonable time to demand such indemnity. If in such case, the person claiming the Marshal's authority over property levied on and claimed by third party.

ownership of said property, or the right to the possession thereof, commences an action against the marshal for the taking thereof, the obligors on said indemnity bond and the plaintiff in such execution, attachment or other process shall, on motion of such marshal, be impleaded with him in such action, and if judgment be rendered against the marshal and his co-defendants, execution shall issue thereon and the property of such co-defendants shall be first exhausted before that of the marshal or of the sureties on his official bond be sold to satisfy such execution.

Approved March 26, 1929.
