

CHAPTER 44.

AN ACT

[H. B. 17]

For the rehabilitation and maintenance of telephone lines on Seward Peninsula, between Nome and Shelton, between Nome-Solomon-Council and Golovin, between Solomon and Bluff, between Candle and Deering and between Candle and Keewalik; making an appropriation of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) therefor, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That the sum of $5,000.00, is hereby appropriated, or so much thereof as may be required to be expended by the Territorial Board of Road Commissioners in co-operation with the Alaska Road Commission for necessary labor and material for rehabilitating and maintaining permanent telephone lines and connections between Nome and Shelton, between Nome-Solomon-Council and Golovin, between Solomon and Bluff, between Candle and Deering, between Candle and Keewalik, on the Seward Peninsula during the twenty-four months beginning July 1st, 1929, and ending June 30th, 1931, provided that any expenditures which may be made upon any privately owned lines for rehabilitation or maintenance of same, be made only upon condition that rates be fixed for telephone communication over said lines during said period, which in the judgment of the Board are fair and reasonable and consistent with rates of similar lines in Alaska. Provided further, that no charge for any telephone services shall be made for any communication over said lines which may or shall pertain to the rehabilitation and maintenance of telephone lines on Seward Peninsula, and provided further that information relative to the movements of local boats, mail or airplanes, giving arrival and departure thereof, shall be provided free.
