

For payment of traveling and contingent expenses in the office of Territorial Highway Engineer, March, 1931$ 69.60

School tuition. For payment of additional tuition for pupils living outside of incorporated cities$1,000.00

These appropriations are supplementary to the appropriations heretofore made for the same purpose for the biennium which ended March 31st, 1931, and are made for the purpose of supplying deficiencies therein.

Emergency. Section 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Approved April 23, 1931.

CHAPTER 36.

AN ACT

[S. B. 36]

To amend Section 967 and Section 968 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, relating to attachment, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Sec. 967, C.L.A.,
amended.

Section 1. That Section 967 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska is hereby amended to read as follows:

Attachment
for satisfaction
of judgment, unless—

“Section 967. The plaintiff, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time afterwards, may have the property of the defendant attached as security for the satisfaction of any judgment that may be recovered, unless the defendant give security to pay such judgment, as in this chapter provided, in the following cases;

First. In an action upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, and which is not secured by mortgage, lien, or pledge upon real or personal property, or, if so secured, when such security is insufficient to satisfy a judgment for the amount justly due the plaintiff."

Second. In an action upon a contract, express or implied, against a defendant not residing in the District.

Section 2. That Section 968 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska is hereby amended to read as follows: Sec. 968, C.L.A., amended.

"Section 968. A writ of attachment shall be issued by the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, whenever the plaintiff or anyone in his behalf shall make and file an affidavit showing— Writ of attachment issued by whom, when.

First. That the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the amount of such indebtedness over and above all legal setoffs or counterclaims) upon a contract, expressed or implied, for the direct payment of money, and that the payment of the same has not been secured by any mortgage, lien, or pledge upon real or personal property, or if so secured that the value of the security (specifying its value) is insufficient to satisfy a judgment for the amount justly due the plaintiff; and Second. That the sum for which the attachment is asked is an actual, bona fide, existing debt, due and owing from the defendant to the plaintiff, and that the attachment is not sought nor the action prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant.

Provided, however, that in an action upon a contract, Proviso. express or implied, against a defendant not residing in the district as specified in the second subdivision of Section 967 of this code, the affidavit shall show only that the action is an action upon a contract express or implied against a defendant not residing in the district, and that the sum for which the attachment is asked is an actual, bona fide, existing debt, due and owing from the defendant to the plaintiff, and that the attachment is not sought nor the action prosecuted to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the defendant."

Emergency.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect upon its passage and approval.

Approved April 23, 1931.

CHAPTER 37.

AN ACT

[S. B. 37]

Authorizing United States Postmasters to administer oaths and to take and certify oaths, affidavits and acknowledgments in certain classes of cases, and repealing Chapter 62 of Session Laws of Alaska, 1919.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. All affidavits relating to expense, or other accounts against the United States, or the Territory of Alaska, all vouchers for public service rendered to the United States, the Territory of Alaska, or any bureau, board, department or sub-division thereof, all accounts against various funds of the Territory of Alaska, and of the United States, all affidavits and certificates for the payment of bounties, all affidavits and other papers having relation to the rescue and relief of lost persons, all affidavits and certificates having relation to the application for, or issuance of, marriage licenses, all affidavits respecting the performance of annual labor on placer and lode mining claims, authorized or required by the laws of the United States or of the Territory of Alaska, all oaths of office, and all acknowledgments of official bonds, and affidavits with respect thereto, may be made and taken before any United States Postmaster of any postoffice in the Territory of Alaska, in the recording precinct in which such postoffice is situated; and that said United States

Postmasters
authorized administer oaths, when.