

CHAPTER 56.

AN ACT

[H. B. 77]

To amend Section 958, Compiled Laws of Alaska.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 958 Compiled Laws of Alaska is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 958, C.L.A.
amended.

Undertaking to Marshal on part of plaintiff.

“Sec. 958. Upon the receipt of the affidavit and indorsement thereon, with a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient personal sureties or by one or more sufficient corporate sureties, approved by the marshal, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action and for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to defendant of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the marshal shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, indorsement thereon, and undertaking, by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken; or, if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either with some person of suitable age and discretion, or, if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the post office directed to the defendant at the post office at his last known place of residence.”

Approved April 27, 1931.
