

co-operation with the federal government. To such ends it shall be the duty of the commission to solicit co-operation from the industries within the Territory.

Authority to incur obligations up to—

Section 2. The commission shall have authority, in carrying out the purpose of this Act, to incur obligations in amounts aggregating not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) no part of which shall be spent except and until the Governor shall have satisfied himself of the intention of the federal departments or others having an interest in the Alaska exhibit of supplying the remainder of the amount required to make a creditable showing at the said Fair. The sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or as much thereof as shall be needed is hereby appropriated out of the general funds of the Territory not otherwise appropriated, to meet the necessary expenses during the present biennium, which sum shall be paid on vouchers approved by the Governor.

Proviso.

Appropriation.

How paid.

Approved April 30, 1931.

CHAPTER 93.

AN ACT

[H. B. 63]

To punish the destroying of shelter cabins and structures, and the destroying, injuring or defacing of signs or signals posted along public highways giving distance, direction, warning or other notice to the public.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Penalty for destroying shelter cabins, road signs, etc.

Section 1. Any person who shall wilfully destroy, injure or deface any sign or signal or shelter cabin erected near or along any public highway designed to aid or inform the travelers on such highway as to distances or directions or giving shelter or warning or notice as to grade, curve or crossing, or otherwise designed to make travel safe, or signs designed to mark the lines or limits of game reserves, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Section 2. Any person guilty of violating any of the provisions of section 1 of this Act shall be answerable in damages for any injury sustained in person or property by any person or corporation as a result of such destruction, injury or defacement of any such sign or signal as described in section 1 hereof.

Person violating provisions this Act answerable for damages for injuries etc. sustained.

Approved April 30, 1931.

CHAPTER 94.

AN ACT

[H. B. 79]

To amend section 878 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1913, relative to how summons is served and upon whom.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 878 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1913, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 878, C.L.A. 1913 amended.

“Section 878. FIRST. If the action be against a private corporation, to the president or other head of the corporation, secretary, cashier, or managing agent, or, in case none of the officers of the corporation above named shall reside or have an office in the Territory, then to any clerk or agent of such corporation who may reside or be found in the Territory, or if no such officer be found, then by leaving a copy thereof at the residence or usual place of abode of such clerk or agent; or, if the Action be against a foreign corporation doing business in the Territory, if it has not ap-

Service of summons.