

CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT

[S. B. 22]

To amend Section 1, Chapter 103, Session Laws of Alaska, for 1929, the same being an Act relating to the protection of minor children, prescribing a penalty for contributing to their delinquency—

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Chapter 103 of the Session Laws of Alaska for 1929, relating to the protection of minor children and prescribing a penalty for contributing to their delinquency be amended to read as follows:

Contributing to dependency or delinquency
minor.

“Section 1. That parent or parents, legal guardian or person having the custody of any minor under the age of eighteen (18) years, or any other person, who shall by any act encourage, cause or contribute to the delinquency of such child shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year or for more than two years, or by imprisonment in the Federal jail not more than one year nor less than one month, or by fine not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment. Provided, however, that the court may suspend the execution of sentence for a violation of the provisions of this Act and impose conditions as to conduct in the premises of any person so convicted and make suspension to depend upon the fulfilment by such person of such conditions and in case of the breach of such conditions or any thereof, the court may order the defendant arrested and placed in the custody of the Marshal as though there had been no suspension.”

Penalty.

Suspended sentence, when.

Approved April 20, 1933.
