

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 18.

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, AND TO THE DELEGATE FROM ALASKA:

Your Memorialist, the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska, in twelfth regular session assembled, most respectfully represents:

WHEREAS, John Erickson, a former employee of the Alaska Railroad, was injured on the said Alaska Railroad while in its employ as a powder man as a result of slipping on a wet rock and falling while igniting a fuse and in so doing injuring his hip and from which injury he has been suffering for a number of years; and

WHEREAS, the provisions of the Act of Congress approved September 7, 1916, and known as the Federal Compensation Act, has been held not to be applicable in the case of the said John Erickson, although an investigation by the representatives of the Territory of Alaska show that he is justly entitled to the care provided for by said Act; and

WHEREAS, under the provisions of H. R. 992, introduced by the Delegate from Alaska on January 3, 1935 the relief provided for by the said Act of September 7, 1916 is extended to the said John Erickson;

NOW, THEREFORE, we, your memorialist, do most urgently pray that H. R. 992 be speedily enacted into law.

And your Memorialist will ever pray.

Passed by the House, March 2, 1935.

Passed by the Senate, March 6, 1935.
