

CHAPTER 12.

AN ACT

[H. B. 8]

To amend Section 1914, Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, relative to Juveniles.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 1914, Compiled Laws of Alaska, Amended. 1933, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 1914. Board is legal guardian of Children committed. The Board of Children's guardians shall be the legal guardians of every child committed to its control as in this chapter provided. It shall have the power to provide for the care, maintenance and education of any such child as a member of a family, or it may commit any such child to the care and custody of some person, association, or institution that will receive it, and shall pay for said care and maintenance a sum not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars per month; for such agreed monthly compensation such child must be furnished and supplied with comfortable clothing, sufficient bedding, ordinary medical attention, authorized by the board, and plain substantial food, and must not be required to perform any services or labor to an extent that may be detrimental to its health. The Board shall have power to bind them out or apprentice them or may proceed as if the parents were dead, and give them in adoption to foster parents in the manner provided in sections 1141-1151 Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933.
