

CHAPTER 77.

AN ACT

[S. B. 45]

To provide for the establishment and maintenance of Territorial Assay Offices and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Public assay offices authorized.

Section 1. For the purpose of aiding bona fide miners and prospectors and stimulating mineral discoveries, the Commissioner of Mines is empowered and directed to establish three public assay offices in the Territory of Alaska, to be located at Ketchikan, Alaska, College, Alaska, and Nome, Alaska.

Assayers appointed,—fees, etc.—

Section 2. The Commissioner of Mines shall appoint for each office a competent person to make assays and analyses of Alaska ores and minerals; when such assays or analyses are made for residents of the Territory no charge shall be imposed for the making thereof; when any assay or analysis is made for nonresidents, there shall be collected therefor the same fee charged by United States Assay Offices for similar services; provided, that the assays and analyses for residents shall have precedence and shall be made in chronological order; and provided further, that it shall not be necessary to disclose the origin of any ore or mineral submitted for assay or analysis, or any other information concerning the same.

Salary of Assayer.

Section 3. The salary of each assayer shall not exceed Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) per annum and shall be paid upon vouchers approved by the Commissioner of Mines.

Appropriation.

Section 4. There is hereby appropriated the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Approved March 12, 1937.

CHAPTER 78.

AN ACT

[S. B. 9]

To provide for the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the Territory of Alaska.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That no person, firm, corporation or company shall manufacture, sell, offer for sale or keep for sale, traffic in, barter or exchange for goods in this Territory, any intoxicating liquor except as hereinafter provided; but this shall not apply to sales made by a person under provisions of law requiring him to sell personal property. Whenever the term "intoxicating liquor" is used in this Act it shall be deemed to include whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, wine, ale, porter, beer, hoochinoo and all spirituous, vinous, malt and other fermented or distilled liquors.

Manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor.

Section 2. That the licenses provided for in this Act shall be issued by the Clerk of the District Court or any subdivision thereof in compliance with the order of the Court or Judge thereof duly made and entered; and the Clerk of the Court shall keep a full record of all applications for licenses and of all recommendations for and remonstrances against the granting of licenses and of the action of the Court thereon.
