

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 17

TO THE HONORABLE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES:

Your Memorialist, the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska in the Thirteenth Regular Session assembled, respectfully represents that:

WHEREAS, many small areas on the mainland of Alaska and on adjacent islands are occupied by bona fide industrious fur farmers under what is known as "Use-permits" issued by the Forest Service; and

WHEREAS, the permanent improvements on these fur farms are similar in character to those found on lands occupied by homestead settlers; and

WHEREAS, the fur farming industry bids fair to become of great and perpetual importance.

NOW, THEREFORE, your Memorialist, respectfully prays that adequate legislation be enacted to make it possible for bona fide fur farmers to acquire title to lands actually occupied and used by them in the conduct of their business.

AND YOUR MEMORIALIST WILL EVER PRAY.

Passed by the Senate, February 27, 1937.

Passed by the House, March 10, 1937.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 18

TO THE HONORABLE HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR., SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, THE HONORABLE RUSSELL R. WAESCHE, COMMANDANT UNITED STATES COAST GUARD, AND THE HONORABLE ANTHONY J. DIMOND, DELEGATE TO CONGRESS FROM ALASKA:

Your Memorialist, the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska, in Regular Session assembled, respectfully represents:

WHEREAS, the coast line of the Pacific Ocean, extending from Seward, Alaska, to the end of the Aleutian Peninsula, is yearly subjected to severe storms during the period from October
