CHAPTER 56.

AN ACT

[H. B. 83]

To amend Section 3165 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, defining the term "resident fisherman"; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Amended.

Section 1. Section 3165 of the Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Defining "Fishing"—resident and non-resident fishermen.

"Sec. 3165. Definitions. The term 'fishing' as used in this article means the catching of fish, for commercial or industrial purposes, whether by hook, net, seine or trap. The term resident shall mean one who at the time of applying for license shall be a bona fide inhabitant of Alaska, and shall have been such inhabitant continuously for at least one year preceding the signing of such application, and shall have been a bona fide inhabitant of Alaska for at least six months during each calendar year thereafter, and otherwise he shall be considered a non-resident and must pay the license fee of a non-resident fisherman as herein required."

Emergency.

Section 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Approved March 9, 1939.
