

the name, tonnage, and official number, if any, of the vessel involved.

Section 3. Heirs, creditors, lienors and other interested parties shall file and make their objections to such appointment within thirty days after the termination of such posting and publication of said notice. If any objection shall be so filed and made to said application, the Probate Judge shall hold a summary hearing thereon and shall allow said application unless it appears that by so doing the rights of heirs, creditors, lienors or other interested parties will be injured.

Notice, hearing on appointment of administrator.

Section 4. In the event such application is allowed, the Probate Court may authorize the administrator to sell said vessel, with the tackle and equipment, at public or private sale, for cash or upon terms, as may appear for the best interests of the estate and for the protection of the heirs, creditors, lienors and other persons interested in said vessel.

Sale of vessel.

Section 5. An emergency is declared to exist and this law shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval.

Approved March 27, 1941.

CHAPTER 57.

AN ACT

[S. B. 41]

Repealing Section 5, Chapter 47, Session Laws of Alaska, 1937, providing that proceeds from the Experimental Fur Farm be covered into the Territorial Treasury.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 5, Chapter 47, Session Laws of Alaska, 1937, is hereby repealed.

Alaska Agricultural Experimental Fur Farm Station; proceeds from farm.

Approved March 27, 1941.