

CHAPTER 14.

AN ACT

[H. B. 27]

To provide penalties for the failure to take out license prior to engaging in or carrying on any business, trade, occupation or profession.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. PROSECUTION FOR FAILURE TO SECURE LICENSE. Any person, firm or corporation engaging in or carrying on or attempting to engage in or carry on any business, trade, profession or occupation for which a license is required as a condition precedent, without having first secured the proper license, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars, or imprisoned not more than six months. Prosecutions for violation of any provision of this section shall be brought in the name of the United States or the Territory. All fines collected upon such prosecutions, less costs and expenses, shall be covered into the Territorial Treasury.

License, failure to secure is misdemeanor.

Penalty.

Section 2. PRODUCTION OF LICENSE. Upon the trial of any action under this Act, the defendant is deemed not to have procured the proper license unless he either produces it or proves that he did procure it.

Presumptions.

Section 3. All Acts or parts of Acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Conflicting Acts repealed.

Approved March 10, 1943.
