

prosecution under this Act, the following shall be deemed prima facie violations:

(a) The possession of food or stores in excess of ordinary requirements aboard any vessel, vehicle, or aircraft leaving or about to leave the Territory; Prima facie violations.

(b) The sale to and the purchase or possession of food by any person who is not a resident of or is about to leave the Territory, except for personal consumption in such quantities as shall not be in excess of immediate requirements.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of every person engaged in the production, manufacture, sale or transportation of any article of food or merchandise which is or may be rationed to refuse to sell, or transport such goods in every case in which he has reason to suspect an attempt to violate this Act, or to facilitate the violation, circumvention or evasion of the rationing laws and regulations as aforesaid. Duty certain class persons.

Section 3. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval. Emergency.

Approved March 20, 1943.

CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT

[S. B. 31]

To amend Section 4671, Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, relative to insane persons.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 4671, Compiled Laws of Alaska, 1933, be amended by striking out the word "male" in the second line of Column 2 of said Section. Amended.

Approved March 20, 1943.