(10) All phases should be handled through the one fund, National Guard Revolving Fund.

Section 9. ARMORIES AND RIFLE RANGES.

(1) No National Guard organization shall be maintained by the Territory at any station, town or city, unless there be there an available and suitable hall for drills, together with necessary and adequate company assembly rooms, store and locker and other rooms as may be required by the Commander-in-Chief, excepting Armories.

Exception.

“Scout Battalions” organized and equipped under special authority of the Department of the Army. Buildings and sites for armory purposes may be leased or constructed, based upon location and size of units to be organized, and shall be financed out of the Revolving Fund, it being understood that such facilities may be made available by local communities or by cooperative arrangement between the Territory and the Federal Government and any local community.

Leasing or constructing.

Suitable armory required.

(2) The army of each battalion, company or smaller unit shall be subject to the order of the Adjutant General and be under the charge of its commanding officer, who shall keep therein all property furnished by the Territory. No unit shall be furnished with arms or equipment until a suitable armory shall be provided for their deposit. Subject to such reasonable regulations as may be promulgated by the Adjutant General, the use of armories may be permitted for any reasonable and legitimate civilian activities so long as such activities do not interfere with their use for military purposes. Proceeds received as rental or otherwise at any armory from such non-military use shall be deposited in the Revolving Fund.

Target ranges.

(3) All target ranges belonging to or leased by the Territory shall be administered by the Adjutant General. Gallery ranges shall be maintained at all armories occupied by Territorial troops, and every command shall be given suitable instruction in marksmanship under direction of its commander, and regulations as authorized by the Commander-in-Chief.

Section 10. COURTS MARTIAL.

Court martial.

(1) Except in organizations in the service of the United States, courts martial in the National Guard shall be of three kinds, namely, general courts martial, special courts martial and summary courts martial. They shall be constituted like, and have cognizance of the same subjects, possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts provided for by the laws and regulations governing the Army of the United States, and the proceedings of courts martial of the National Guard shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for said similar courts.

(2) EXPENSES OF MILITARY COURTS. The expenses incident to and connected with the holding of military courts in the National Guard shall be paid out of the Fund under orders, rules and regulations issued by the Governor. Expenses of court.

(3) Whenever the sentence of a general court martial shall include a fine, and such sentence shall have been approved by the officer ordering such court, the Adjutant General shall issue an execution warrant for the collection of such fine, directed to any peace officer of the Judicial Division wherein the person against whom such fine is imposed resides, and such officer shall proceed in the same manner as if he were likewise authorized in a civil suit, and he shall make return within twenty days after receiving the same to the Adjutant General. In default of the payment of such fine, or if the officer carrying out the execution shall certify that there is no property of the defendant out of which to satisfy such fine, the Adjutant General shall issue a commitment for placement of such delinquent in a specified guard house or jail. Collection of fine. Default.

Such warrant of commitment for such default shall specify the amount in dollars of the said fine or unpaid balance thereof, and such delinquent shall remain in the custody of the keeper or warden of such guard house or jail one day for each two dollars of said unpaid sum. Warrant for commitment

(4) Whenever the sentence of a general court martial shall be or include imprisonment in a jail or penitentiary, and such sentence shall have been approved by the officer ordering such court, the Adjutant General shall issue an appropriate commitment, directed to the authorities in charge of such jail or penitentiary charged with carrying out the sentences and said authorities shall in turn make return thereof to the Adjutant General.

Adjutant General to issue commit-

If such sentence shall be, or include imprisonment in a military guard house, such sentence shall be executed by order of or arrangement made by the officer approving such sentence.

(5) All fines levied and collected under the provisions of this Section shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Territory, who shall deposit same in the military fund of the Territory.

Disposition of fines.

(6) For each day's duty as a member of a general court martial, or as a witness for a defendant under summons from the president or Judge Advocate, officers and men shall be paid as provided in Sub-sections (3) and (4) of Section 8 hereof.

(7) The presiding officer, or recorder, of any military board duly appointed to conduct any investigation or survey, or an officer detailed for such purpose may administer oaths to any witness attending to testify in such investigation.

(8) All expenses incident to conduct of such boards shall be paid for upon proper vouchers drawn against the Fund.

(9) If any member of the National Guard shall be prosecuted by civil or criminal action for any act performed or committed by such member, or any acts caused, ordered or directed by such member to be done or performed in furtherance of and while in the performance of his military duty, all the expense of the defense of line of duty.

such action or actions, civil or criminal, including attorney's fees, witnesses' fees for the defense, defendant's court costs and all costs for transcripts of records and abstracts thereof on appeal by the defense, shall be paid out of the military fund.

Section 11. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

(1) In no case shall any part of this Alaska National Guard as herein defined be used against any labor organization or for the purpose of strike breaking within the Territory of Alaska. ^{No strike interference.}

(2) No part of the military forces shall leave the Territory with arms and equipment without the consent of the Commander-in-Chief.

(3) A person who, either by himself or with another, wilfully deprives a member of the National Guard of his employment, or prevents his being employed by himself or another, or obstructs or annoys said member of the National Guard or his employer in respect of his trade, business or employment, because said member of said National Guard is such member, or dissuades any person from enlisting in the said National Guard by threat of injury to him in case he shall so enlist, in respect to his employment, trade or business, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $100.00 ^{Obstructing personnel.}

(4) The word "officer" as used in this Act, means any commissioned officer of the National Guard of the Territory, and the words "enlisted man" as used in this Act, means all other members of the National Guard of the Territory.

Section 12. All laws or parts thereof which are in conflict with his Act are hereby repealed. ^{Repeal.}

clause.

Section 13. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval.

Appropriation.

Section 14. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Territorial Treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $75,000.00 to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Approved March 26, 1949.
