CHAPTER 126

AN ACT

[S. B. 87]

Pertaining to operation of municipally owned utilities, and provision of a validation clause respecting actions heretofore taken by municipal utility boards; amending Sec. 2 of Act passed by the Nineteenth Legislature identified as H. B. 117; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Section 2 of the Act identified as H. B. 117 of the Nineteenth Legislature is hereby amended by adding thereto at the end thereof the following:

“This section constitutes a re-enactment of statutory authorization for establishment of municipal utility boards under the provisions of Ch. 48 S.L.A. 1935, under which such boards have existed and operated ever since that time, even though said provisions were inadvertently repealed by Ch. 75 S.L.A. 1939, in connection with which the de facto status of such boards during all of said period is hereby recognized, and all actions heretofore taken by said boards in conformity with the provisions of said Ch. 48 S.L.A. 1935 are hereby validated and confirmed.”

Statutory authority to validate de facto boards.

Section 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Emergency Clause.

Approved March 26, 1949.
