

Section 5. RECORDS AND REPORTING. Every employer subject to this Act shall make, keep, and maintain such records of the wages and wage rates, job classifications, and other terms and conditions of employment of the persons employed by him, and shall preserve such records for such periods of time, and shall make such reports therefrom as the Commissioner shall prescribe. ^{Retention of employer records.}

Section 6. It shall be unlawful for any employer, for the purpose of dissuading any employee from preferring charges or giving information against him under this Act or testifying against him in any action brought hereunder, to threaten termination of such employee's job or other retaliatory action, or to take such retaliatory action in any such case. ^{Employer retaliation.}

Section 7. In addition to the liability and penalty set forth in Section 4 hereof, any person, firm or corporation who willfully and knowingly violates any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.00. ^{Penalty.}

Section 8. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and such application to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. ^{Savings clause.}

Approved March 7, 1949.

CHAPTER 30

AN ACT

[H. B. 28]

Pertaining to travel of Territorial officials and employees outside Alaska; amending Section 11-4-3, Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated 1949, and repealing Section 11-4-2, Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated 1949.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That Section 11-4-3, Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Travel outside Alaska.

Appropriations for per diem and transportation expense. No appropriation, or any part thereof, made by the Territorial Legislature shall be expended for per diem or transportation cost outside the Territory unless otherwise authorized by law, or unless such travel is clearly necessary for the benefit of the Territory, its people or resident industries, in which last mentioned event such travel shall be limited to the shortest route or its cost equivalent, and to the least number of days necessary to transact the business involved and secure return passage, and it shall be the duty of every Territorial official, unless otherwise authorized by law to travel outside of Alaska, to obtain prior approval for such travel from his supervising board or commission, or from the Board of Administration if the official is not under the supervision of a board or commission, and when such travel is completed, it shall be incumbent upon each such official to obtain approval of his transportation and per diem vouchers from his approving board as above mentioned before submitting same to the Auditor for payment, and only such portion of the money vouchered for as meets with such approval may be paid.

Approval required.

Section 2. That Section 11-4-2, Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated 1949, is hereby repealed.

Approved March 9, 1949.
