shall also furnish his name for like purpose to the Auditor of the Territory and such employer and the person so employed shall, at the same time, furnish additional information as follows: Principal contributor, by way of salary, fee or otherwise, to counsel or agent for work to be performed in influencing legislation; amount to be contributed by such principal and manner of payment; type of legislation or particular bills it is proposed to support or oppose; names and respective addresses of others contributing to counsel or agent as consideration for services to be rendered in the premises; amount to be contributed by each and manner of payment. Also a statement must be included with respect to each contributor as to the type of legislation to be supported or opposed in behalf of the contributor.

Employee to furnish information also.

Contents of information.

Section 2. Section 35-2-186 Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 35-2-186. No person to act as counsel or agent unless registered. No person shall appear as counsel before any committee of the legislature, or of either house thereof, or act as agent with respect to any legislation, unless, pursuant to fulfilling the registration requirements including payment of the docket fee or fees hereinafter specified in this Act, his name is registered upon the legislative docket as counsel or agent with respect to such legislation.

Must register before appearing as counsel.

Section 3. Section 35-2-193 Alaska Compiled Laws Annotated 1949, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 35-2-193. Fees for registration. Upon request for registration in the docket and furnishing of the required information, the Auditor of the Territory shall charge and collect for each registration a basic fee of $10.00 for legal residents of Alaska covering permit to act as counsel or agent for the principal Alaska resident
