

Board
membership.

COMMISSION: CREATION: MEMBERS AND THEIR APPOINTMENT. There is hereby established a Fisheries Experimental Commission, hereinafter referred to as the "Commission," consisting of the Fisheries Technologist in charge of the Ketchikan Fisheries Experimental Laboratory, and two members to be appointed by the Governor of Alaska with the advice and consent of the Legislature.

Approved March 19, 1951.

CHAPTER 42

AN ACT

[H. B. 115]

To extend election laws and powers of first class cities relating to public utilities, airports, public service rates, franchises, acquisition and disposition of property, motor vehicle regulations and schools, to second class cities or towns; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Powers.

Section 1. All laws and parts of laws of the Territory of Alaska empowering and regulating first class cities on public utilities, airports, public service rates, franchises, acquisition and disposition of property, motor vehicles, and schools, are hereby extended and made applicable to second class cities or towns.

Election
and appointments.

Section 2. All laws and parts of laws of the Territory of Alaska providing for elections and appointment of city officials and employees including school boards and defining the powers and duties of such officials and employees, of first class cities, are hereby extended and made applicable to second class cities.

Section 3. The last paragraph of Section 16-2-3 ACCLA 1949, relating to elections for second class cities in April annually, is hereby repealed. ^{Repeals.}

Section 4. Wherever in the laws hereby extended to second class cities the term "City Council" is used, it shall for the purposes of this Act be taken and deemed to mean "Board of Trustee".

Section 5. All things and acts done, including elections, heretofore by second class cities in attempted conformity with the laws hereby extended to second class cities are hereby validated as fully as though such laws were applicable to second class cities when such things and acts, including elections, were done. ^{Validation.}

Section 6. An emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act shall be in effect immediately upon its passage and approval. ^{Emergency clause.}

Approved March 19, 1951.

CHAPTER 43

AN ACT

[S. B. 57]

Relating to the operation and equipment of aircraft; registration of aircraft and pilots; and obstruction of runways; providing penalties and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska: